Dear Mr. Dunlap;

In an attempt to file the 2006 Not-For-Profit Corporation Annual Report for Jasmine Lake Homeowners Association, Inc. I discovered that you have them listed as Inactive and was unable to download the form for filing.

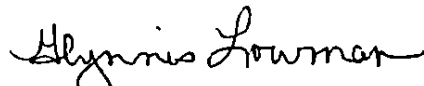

I called your office and spoke to Barbara (she did not give me her last name) who told me that the filing fee had not been paid. I faxed a copy of the cashed check to Barbara along with the 2005 Annual Report. Barbara then told me that the "Jasmine Lake" check had been credited to Coconut Shores V Condominium Association which P & M Property Management also manages. The check for Coconut Shores V was never cashed and never returned. The Jasmine Lake Annual Report and check were mailed in March of 2005, the check was cashed but the report was sent back to P & M because Paul Sapp (owner) had not signed as "registered agent". The signed Jasmine Lake Annual report along with a copy of the cashed check were then mailed to your office in June of 2005.

Enclosed is a copy of the 2005 Jasmine Lake Annual report, a copy of the cashed check, a check for Coconut Shores V 2005 Annual Report filing fee and a check for Jasmine Lake 2006 Annual Report filing fee.

Since the report and fees were paid on time but credited to another Association in error the late filing penalty should not apply. We ask that you update your records listing Jasmine Lake Homeowners Association as an active Corporation so that we can file the 2006 Annual Report.

Please confirm in writing by regular mail, fax, or email at the address or number listed below that Jasmine Lake is again an active Corporation and the Annual Report will be filed immediately.

Sincerely,

Glynnis Lowman, CAM
