4. GENERAL POWERS. The general powers that the Association shall have are as follows:

- 5.2. Qualifications. Except for those Directors appointed by Declarant, all Directors must be Members of the Association
- 5.3. Elections. Elections of Directors shall be by majority vote but must be elected or appointed in accordance with the Bylaws and Covenants.
- 5.4. Appointed and Elected Directors. The subscribers to the Article of Incorporation and the record owners of each parcel shall be members of the Jubilation Community Association, Inc. and no other persons or entities shall be entitled to membership. Membership shall be established by acquisition of ownership of fee title to, or fee interest in a parcel whether by conveyance, devise, judicial decree or otherwise, subject to the provisions of these Covenants and by the recordation in the Public Records, of the deed or other instrument establishing the acquisition by the delivery to the Jubilation Community Association of a true copy of the recorded deed or other instrument, and thereupon the membership of the prior owner to the parcel shall be terminated. There shall be two classes of membership.
1. Class A shall mean and refer to the class of membership which includes all Owners of the parcels with the exception of the Declarant, Harvest for Humanity: Jubilation Development Corporation.
 2. Class B shall mean and refer to the class of membership which includes the developer/Declarant, Harvest for Humanity Jubilation Development Corporation and the subscribers.

~~The Class B member shall be entitled to elect the Board of Directors of the Jubilation Community Association until three months after ninety percent(90%) of the lots are sold and after ninety percent (90%) of the multifamily units are sold in Tract A. These parcels shall be conveyed to members other than the developer. Members other than the developer shall not include builders, contractors, or others who purchase a parcel for the purpose of constructing improvements thereon for resale. For purposes of determining the ninety percent (90%) in its entirety, this means the sale of ninety-five(95) parcel units as previously described.~~

~~The developer is entitled to elect at least one member of the Board of Directors of the Community Association as long as the developer holds for sale in the ordinary course of business at least five(5) lots as depicted on the plat or five(5) multifamily units as depicted on Tract A. This is five(5%) of the parcels in all phases held for sale in the ordinary course of business. After the developer relinquishes control of the community association, the developer may exercise the right to vote any developer-owned voting interests~~

~~in the same manner as any other member, except for purposes of reacquiring control of the community association or selecting the majority of the member of the Board of Directors.~~

To the exclusion of all Class A members, the Class B members shall be entitled to exercise their vote to elect the Board of Directors of the Jubilation Community Association or for any other purpose until three months after both (1) ninety percent(90%)of the lots are sold and (2) ninety percent (90%) of the multifamily units are sold (Tract A). Three months after the occurrence of both of these events shall mean that the Class A members may exercise their right to vote based upon the number of parcels which they own. Parcels shall be deemed to be sold when they are conveyed to "members other than the developer". "Members other than the developer" shall mean those owners who intend to use the lots or multifamily units for their principal use as a single family dwelling or a multi-family dwelling unit and therefore, shall not include builders, contractors, or others who purchase a parcel for the purpose of constructing improvements thereon for a resale. The ninety percent (90%) needed to preclude the Class B member from their entitlement to exclusively vote as described herein shall mean the sale of both (1) forty-five(45) lots of the forty-nine(49) platted lots and (2) fifty-one(51) multifamily units of the fifty-six(56) multifamily lots to "members other than the developer", provided that fifty-six(56) multifamily units are platted or constructed. The number of multifamily units needed would be proportionately reduced should a lesser number of multifamily units be platted or constructed.

The above conditions notwithstanding, the developer is entitled to elect at least one member of the Board of Directors of the Community Association as long as the developer holds for sale in the ordinary course of business at least five(5) lots as depicted on the plat or five(5) multifamily units as depicted on Tract A. This is five(5%) of the parcels in all phases held for sale in the ordinary course of business. After the developer relinquishes control of the community association, the developer may exercise the right to vote any developer-owned voting interests in the same manner as any other member, except for purposes of reacquiring control of the community association or selecting the majority of the members of the Board of Directors.

All Directors appointed by the Developer except one shall submit their resignations with such resignations to be effective at the time of the election of their successors. In no event can a Director appointed by Declarant be removed, except by

- 10.2.2 After the Turnover Date, these Covenants may be amended by the consent of the Owners of two-thirds (2/3) of all parcels entitled to vote with the approval or ratification of a majority of the Jubilation Board in the following manner:
- 10.2.2.1. The Board, by majority vote, shall adopt a resolution setting forth the proposed amendment and direct that it be submitted to a vote of the Owners at a meeting, special, regular or annual, of the Members of the Association;
