To whom it may concern,

In response to Article III, on the application for Articles of Incorporation for a Not-for-Profit organization, the purpose for which the incorporation is organized is this. To challenge the community to accept God, while positively impacting their own lives. One of our first main objectives will be to provide a Christian Community center already much needed in the area. Here we will offer multiple activities along ethnic and cultural lines, I.E. athletics, choral singing, talent and theatre productions, aerobics, counseling, community outreach, training and job placement, and so on. All of our services will be offered to those in need for no cost.

It is imperative that we at Christian Community Challenge express the importance of God in all of our endeavors.

Sincerely,

Signature
