Secretary

ARTICLE IX
Liability

No officer, Director or Member of the Association shall be or become personally liable for any debt or other obligation of this Association except as specifically provided in the Declaration, these Articles of Incorporation or the Bylaws.

ARTICLE X
Indemnification

Every Director and officer of the Association, and every Member of the Association serving the Association at its request, shall be indemnified by the Association against all expenses and liabilities, including reasonable attorneys' fees, reasonably incurred by or imposed upon such Director, officer or Member in connection with any proceeding or any settlement of any proceeding to which such person may be a party or in which such person may become involved by reason of being or having been a Director or officer of the Association or by reason of serving or having served the Association at its request, whether or not such person is a Director or officer or is serving at the time the expenses or liabilities are incurred; provided that in the event of a settlement before entry of judgment, and also when the person concerned is adjudged guilty of willful misfeasance or malfeasance in the performance of duties, the indemnification shall apply only when the Board of Directors approves the settlement and reimbursement as being in the best interests of the Association. The foregoing right of indemnification shall be in addition to and shall not be exclusive of all other rights to which that person may be entitled.

((H03000214857 2))

ARTICLE XI
Bylaws

The Bylaws of the Association may be made, altered or rescinded at any annual meeting of the Members of the Association, or at any special meeting of the Members called for such purpose, on the affirmative vote of seventy-five percent (75%) of each Class of Members, except that the initial Bylaws of the Association shall be made and adopted by the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE XII
Voting Rights

SECTION 1. Voting Classes.

A. The Association shall have two (2) classes of voting Members as follows:

Class A. Class A Members shall be all Owners except the Declarant, who shall be entitled to one (1) vote for each Lot owned.

Class B. Class B Members shall be the Declarant, which shall be entitled to the number of votes equal to the product of the number of total votes outstanding in Class A multiplied by two (2). The Class B membership shall cease on the happening of any of the following events, whichever occurs first (the "Turnover Date"):

(1) Three (3) months after ninety percent (90%) of the Lots in all phases of the Development that will ultimately be operated by the Association have been conveyed to Owners other than the Declarant; or

(2) At any time the Declarant shall elect, in its sole discretion, to terminate the Class B membership.

B. The Declarant is entitled to elect at least one member of the Board of Directors of the Association as long as the Declarant holds for sale in the ordinary course of business at least five percent (5%) of the Lots in the Development.

C. When more than one person or entity holds an undivided fee interest in any Lot, all such persons or entities shall be Class A or Class B Members, as appropriate, and shall enjoy full membership rights, privileges and obligations as set forth herein, and the vote for such Lot shall be exercised as they, among themselves, determine, but in no event shall more than one (1) vote be cast with respect to any one Lot.

SECTION 2. Class B Voting Rights. Notwithstanding the provisions contained hereinabove with regard to the termination of the Class B membership, it is specifically understood that:

((H03000214857 2))

A. Until the Turnover Date, the Declarant shall have the right of veto on all questions coming before the membership for a vote thereon; and

B. Upon the Turnover Date, the Declarant shall each become a Class A Member with regard to each Lot owned by it, notwithstanding the provisions to the contrary hereinabove, and the Declarant shall be entitled to one (1) vote for each such Lot on all questions coming before the membership for a vote thereon.

ARTICLE XIII
Termination

The Association may be dissolved with the assent given in writing and signed by the holders of not less than seventy-five percent (75%) of the total number of votes outstanding in each Class of membership. Upon dissolution of the Association, other than incident to a merger or consolidation, the assets of the Association shall be dedicated to an appropriate public agency to be used for the purposes similar to those for which this Association was created. In the event such dedication is refused acceptance, such assets shall be granted, conveyed and assigned to any non-profit corporation, association, trust or other organization to be devoted to such similar purposes, or distributed to the Members as appurtenances (if real property or any interest therein) to the Lots, subject to any and all applicable liens and encumbrances and restrictions of record. However, in the event of a dissolution of the Association other than incident to a merger or consolidation, the property within BONTERRA consisting of the surface water management system shall be conveyed to an appropriate agency of local government, and, if not accepted by such agency of local government, the surface water management system shall be dedicated to a similar non-profit corporation. This Article XIII is expressly made subject to the applicable provisions of Chapter 617, Florida Statutes, as it exists on the date of any such dissolution.

ARTICLE XIV
Amendment

Proposals for the alteration, amendment or rescision of these Articles of Incorporation may be made by any of the following methods:

A. The following process:

(1) The Board of Directors shall adopt a resolution setting forth the proposed amendment and directing that it be submitted to a vote at a meeting of the Members, which may be either the annual meeting or a special meeting.

(2) Written notice setting forth the proposed amendment with new language underlined and deleted language lined through, or if the amendment is so extensive as to make underlining and lining through too complicated to clearly show the proposed changes, by a summary of the changes to be effected thereby, shall be given to each Member within the time and in the manner provided in the Bylaws for the giving of notice of meetings of Members (the "Required Notice").

(3) At the duly called meeting, a vote of the Members shall be taken on the proposed amendment. The proposed amendment shall be adopted upon receiving the affirmative vote of seventy-five percent (75%) of the total votes outstanding in each Class of membership. Any number of amendments may be submitted to the Members and voted upon them at one meeting; or

B. The Members may, without action by the Board, amend these Articles by an affirmative vote of seventy-five percent (75%) of the total votes outstanding in each Class of membership at a duly called meeting for which the Required Notice has been given; or

C. An amendment may be adopted by a written statement signed by all Directors and all Members setting forth their intention that an amendment to the Articles be adopted.

No amendment may be made to these Articles which shall in any manner reduce, amend, affect or modify the terms, conditions, provisions, rights and obligations set forth in the Declaration.

A copy of each amendment shall be filed with and certified by the Secretary of State of the State of Florida.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, there shall be no amendment to these Articles which shall abridge, amend or alter the rights of the Declarant, including, but not limited to, the right to designate and select the Directors as provided in Article VII hereof, without the prior written consent thereof by the Declarant, nor shall there be any amendment to these Articles which shall abridge, alter or modify the rights of any Institutional Mortgagee.
