ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION OF
HART FAMILY FOUNDATION, INC.
A FLORIDA NOT-FOR-PROFIT CORPORATION

ARTICLE ONE
Name and Principal Office

The name of this Corporation is HART FAMILY FOUNDATION, INC. The principal office and mailing address of the Corporation shall be 100 Fernwood Circle, Daytona Beach, Florida, 32114-1132.

ARTICLE TWO
Statement of Corporate Nature

This Corporation is a Not-for-Profit Corporation and is not organized for the private gain of any person. It is organized under the Not-for-Profit Corporation Law for charitable purposes.

ARTICLE THREE
Purpose

The purposes for which this Corporation is formed are confined to such purposes as would qualify it as an exempt organization under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 or corresponding provisions of any subsequent federal tax laws, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations which qualify as tax-exempt organizations under that section.

This Corporation shall have and exercise all rights and powers conferred on corporations generally under the laws of the State of Florida. However, this Corporation is not empowered to engage in any activity which is not in itself in furtherance of its purposes as a corporation exempt under Section 501(c)(3), as set forth in the preceding paragraph of this Article, or as a corporation to which contributions are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 or corresponding provisions of any subsequent federal tax laws, nor is it empowered to engage in any activities described in the succeeding paragraphs of this Article.

This Corporation shall not, as a substantial part of its activities, carry on propaganda or otherwise attempt to influence legislation. Nor shall it participate or intervene (by publication or distribution of any statements or otherwise) in any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office.

No part of the net earnings, properties, or assets of this Corporation shall inure to the benefit of any private person or individual, or any officer, or trustee of this Corporation on dissolution or otherwise, and on liquidation or dissolution, all properties and assets of this Corporation remaining after payment or provision for all debts and obligations shall be distributed and paid over to such fund, foundation, or corporation organized and operated for charitable purposes as the Board of Directors shall determine, and as shall at that time qualify as a tax-exempt organization under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, or corresponding provisions of any subsequent federal tax laws and has also qualified as a tax-exempt organization under Section 23701(d) of the Revenue and Taxation Code, or corresponding provisions of any subsequent Florida law.

ARTICLE FOUR Tax Provisions

All references to "Code" shall mean the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 as amended from time to time.

The Corporation shall distribute such amounts at such times and in such a manner as to not become subject to the tax under Section 4942 of the Code.

The Corporation is prohibited from engaging in any act of self-dealing (as defined in Section 4942 of the Code).

The Corporation is prohibited from retaining any excess business holdings (as defined in Section 4943(c) of the Code).

The Corporation is prohibited from making any investments in such a manner as to subject the Corporation to tax under Section 4944 of the Code and from making any taxable expenditures as defined in Section 4945(d) of the Code.

The Corporation shall not make any taxable expenditures as defined in Section 4945(d) of the Code, or corresponding provisions of any subsequent federal tax laws.

ARTICLE FIVE
Dedication of Property

The property of this Corporation is irrevocably dedicated to charitable purposes and no part of the net income or assets of this Corporation shall ever inure to the benefit of any director, officer, or to the benefit of any private individual. Upon the dissolution or winding up of this Corporation, its assets remaining after payment, or provision for payment, of all debts and liabilities of the Corporation, shall be distributed to a nonprofit fund, foundation or corporation which is organized and operated exclusively for charitable purposes and which has established its tax exempt status under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, or corresponding provisions of any subsequent federal tax laws.

If this Corporation holds any assets in trust, such assets shall be disposed of in such manner as may be directed by decree of the Superior Court of the county in which the Corporation has its principal office, upon petition therefore by the Attorney General of the State of Florida or by a person concerned in the liquidation, in a proceeding to which the Attorney General is a party.

ARTICLE SIX
Perpetual Existence

The Corporation shall have perpetual existence, commencing on the date of filing of these articles.

ARTICLE SEVEN
Board of Directors

The business of this corporation shall be conducted by a Board of Directors, which shall consist of not less than one (1) and no more than three (3) directors and shall be elected as provided in the By-Laws.

The officers of this corporation shall be a President and Secretary, and such other officers as may be set forth in the By-Laws.
