a political organization as described in Internal Revenue Code (“Code”) Section 527.

Section 3.2. Non-Profit Purposes.

- (a) The Corporation is organized and operated primarily for political activities which constitute exempt functions for political organizations as described in I.R.C. Code Section 527.
- (b) The Corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered by officers or employees of the Corporation and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Section 3.1.

Section 3.3. Powers. Subject to any limitation or restriction imposed by the Act, any other law, or any other provisions of these Articles of Incorporation, the Corporation shall have the power:

- (a) To do everything necessary, advisable or convenient for the accomplishment of any of the purposes hereinbefore set forth, or which shall at any time appear conducive to or expedient for the protection or benefit of the Corporation and to do all of the things incidental thereto or connected therewith which are not forbidden by law;
- (b) To have, exercise and enjoy in furtherance of the purposes hereinbefore set forth all the general rights, privileges and powers granted to corporations by the Act, as now existing or hereafter amended, and by the common law.

Section 3.4. Limitations on Powers.

- (a) Any amount of exempt function income received by the Corporation shall be segregated for use only for the exempt function of the corporation by receipt into and payment from a "segregated fund" as described in Treas. Regs. §1.527-2(b).
- (b) Upon the dissolution of the Corporation, the Board of Governors shall after paying or making provision for the payment of all the liabilities of the Corporation dispose of all the assets of the Corporation exclusively for the purposes of the Corporation in such manner or to such organization or organizations which are (1) organized and operated primarily for political activities that constitute exempt functions for a political organization as described in Code Section 527, and which shall at the time qualify as an exempt organization or organizations under Code Section 527 or corresponding provisions of any subsequent federal tax law, as the Board of Governors shall determine, or (2) organized and operated exclusively for charitable, educational, religious, or scientific purposes as shall at the time qualify as an exempt organization or organizations under Code Section 501(c)(3), or corresponding provisions of any subsequent federal tax law, as the Board of Governors shall determine. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by a judge of the Circuit Court of Duval County, Florida, exclusively for such purposes or to such organizations or organizations as said court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

ARTICLE IV

Membership and Board of Governors

Section 4.1. Classes. The Corporation shall have one (1) class of voting members and one (1) class of nonvoting members, which classes shall be the following:

(a) Voting Members. Subject to such additional qualifications and conditions as may be prescribed from time to time in the Bylaws of the Corporation, the Board of Governors, as that body shall exist from time to time, shall constitute the Voting Members of the Corporation.

(b) Nonvoting Members. Subject to such additional qualifications and conditions as may be prescribed from time to time in the Bylaws of the Corporation, there will be a class of members who shall constitute the Nonvoting Members of the Corporation.

Section 4.2. Voting Rights of Voting Members. Each Voting Member in good standing shall be entitled to one (1) vote, exercisable in person or by proxy, for each membership standing in his or her name on the books of the Corporation on each matter submitted to the membership for a vote at each meeting of the membership. Except as otherwise provided by law, Nonvoting Members shall not have the right to vote on any matter submitted to the membership for a vote.

Section 4.3. Duties and Qualifications of Governors. The business and affairs of the corporation shall be managed by the Board of Governors. Each Governor shall be a voting member of the Corporation. The Chairman of the Florida Federation of Republican Women will at all times serve as a member of the Board of Governors.

Section 4.4. Number and Election. The initial Board of Governors shall consist of twenty-three (23) Governors. Additional Governors up to an unspecified number may be elected at a special or annual meeting of the members. The exact number of Governors shall be specified from time to time in the Bylaws of the corporation. The minimum number of Governors so specified shall be three (3) and the maximum number shall be unspecified. Each Governor shall serve for a term of two years.

Section 4.5. Qualifications. Each Governor shall be a Voting Member of the Corporation and shall have such other qualifications as may be specified from time to time in the Bylaws of the Corporation or required by law.

Section 4.6. Removal. Any Governor may be removed, with or without cause, by the Board of Governors whenever a majority of such Board shall vote in favor of such removal.
