ARTICLE III: PURPOSES

1. Permitted Activities. The purposes for which the Corporation is organized are to function as a Christian church and to engage in such activities as are authorized for a Christian church; subject to the restrictions and limitations hereinafter set forth, to use and apply the whole or any part of the income there from and the principal thereof exclusively for religious, charitable, benevolent, eleemosynary, and educational purposes either directly or by contributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and regulations issued pursuant thereto as they may now exist or as they may hereafter be amended. The Corporation shall have any and all lawful powers provided in Florida Statutes, particularly Chapter 617 that are not in conflict with these Articles. This Corporation shall further be empowered to purchase, improve, rent, lease, own, mortgage, hold, enjoy, maintain and sell real estate; to borrow money and contract debts, and to issue bonds, promissory notes or other obligations and evidences of indebtedness; and to do all and everything necessary and proper for the accomplishment of the objects enumerated herein or necessary or incidental to the specific powers and privileges which are, can be, or may be granted to corporations under the laws of the State of Florida.

2. Prohibited Activities. This Corporation is not organized for a pecuniary profit. There shall be no power to issue certificates of stock or declare dividends and no part of the Corporation's earnings, assets or accumulations shall inure to the benefit of any member, director, or individual. Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles, this Corporation will not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on by (a) a corporation exempt from Federal Income Tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law, or (b) a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 or any other corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law. In particular, the Board of Directors shall not, nor shall it allow members, subscribers, officers or employees of the Corporation to, on behalf of the corporation:

(a) Allow any part of the net earnings to inure to the benefit of a private individual including any member, director, officer or subscriber of this Corporation.

(b) To carry on propaganda or to attempt to lobby or influence legislation.

(c) To intervene in any political campaign or to endorse any candidate for public office.

(d) To do any of the following:

(1) Lend any part of the Corporation's income or corpus without adequate security and a reasonable rate of interest to;

(2) To pay excessive salaries or other compensation over a reasonable allowance to;

(3) To make any part of the Corporation's services available on a preferential basis to;

(4) To make substantial purchase of securities or other property for less than adequate consideration from;

(5) Sell any substantial part of the property of the Corporation for less than an adequate consideration; or

(6) To engage in any other transaction which results in substantial diversion of the Corporation's income, assets or corpus to:

The subscribers, officers or directors of the corporation or to any person who has made a substantial contribution to the corporation, or to any brother or sister, (whether by the half or whole blood), spouse, ancestor or lineal descendant of the foregoing or to any corporation controlled by any of the foregoing either directly or indirectly of fifty-one percent (51%) of the total combined voting power of such corporation.

(e) To violate the provision of Florida Statutes, Chapter 617, where applicable.

ARTICLE IV: DISSOLUTION

In the event of dissolution, the residual assets of the organization will be turned over first: to another Southern Baptist congregation that qualifies as a church; second, one or more organizations which themselves are exempt as organizations described in Sections 501(c)(3) and 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 or corresponding sections of any prior or future law; or third, to the Federal, State or local governments for exclusive public purposes.

ARTICLE V: DIRECTORS

There shall be a minimum of three (3) and a maximum of six (6) members of the initial Board of Directors of the Corporation.
