Add Article IX:

Conflict of Interest Policy

Any director, officer, or key employee who has an interest in a contract or other transaction presented to the Board or a committee thereof for authorization, approval, or ratification shall make a prompt and full disclosure of his interest to the Board or committee prior to its acting on such contract or transaction. Such disclosure shall include any relevant and material facts known to such person about the contract or transaction which might reasonably be construed to be adverse to the corporation's interest.

The body to which such disclosure is made shall thereupon determine, by a majority vote, whether the disclosure shows that a conflict or interest exists or can reasonably be construed to exist. If a conflict is deemed to exist, such person shall not vote on, nor use his personal influence on, nor participate (other than to present factual information or to respond to questions) in, the discussions or deliberations with respect to such contract or transaction. Such person may be counted in determining whether a quorum is present but may not be counted when the Board of Directors or a committee of the Board takes action on the transaction. The minutes of the meeting shall reflect the disclosure made, the vote thereon and, where applicable, the abstention from voting and participation, and whether a quorum was present.

No member of The Shammah House, Inc. Board of Directors or Staff shall derive any personal profit or gain, directly or indirectly, by reason of his or her participation in the Shammah House Mentoring Program. Each individual shall disclose to The Shammah House, Inc. any personal interest which he or she may have in any matter pending before the organization and shall refrain from participation in any decision on such matter. Any member of The Shammah House's Board of Directors or Staff shall refrain from obtaining any list of The Shammah House Mentoring Program's clients for personal or private solicitation purposes at any time during the term of their affiliation.

The date of adoption of the amendment(s) was: October 21, 2005
