ARTICLE VI- BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Section 1: Board Role, Size, Composition. The Board is responsible for overall policy and direction of the Council, and delegate responsibility for day-to-day operations to the Council's Executive Director and committees. The Board shall have up to twenty-one and no fewer than ten, members. The board receives no compensation other than reasonable expenses.

Section 2: Meetings. The Board shall meet at least quarterly, at an agreed upon time and place.

Annual Meeting. The date of the regular annual meeting shall be set by the Board of Directors who shall also set the time and place.

Special Meetings. Special meetings may be called by the CEO, the Chairperson, the Executive Committee, or a simple majority of the Board of Directors. A petition signed by ten percent of the voting members may call a special meeting.

Section 3: Notice. Notice of each meeting shall be given to each voting member, by mail, email, or telephone not less than ten days before the meeting. Section 3: Board Members and ten General Member Representative Board Members Section 4: Board Development Committee. A Board Development Committee shall be appointed by the Board to represent the diverse needs of the children. The Board Development Committee shall have three board members, with the Executive Director as an ex-officio committee member. Committee members shall serve two-year terms. The Board Development Committee shall be responsible for developing nominees for board elections, board committees, and planning for board training and leadership development.

Section 5: Election Procedures. The Board Development Committee shall be responsible for nominating a slate of member representatives equal to one and a half times the number of elected member representatives to be chosen each year, seeking to preserve the diversity and balance necessary to enable the Women Helping Youth Soar, Ponder, Educate and Relate, Inc. to provide policy guidance on the broad spectrum of nonprofit issues. Nominees selected by the Board Development Committee must be member representative of member organizations of the Women Helping Youth Soar, Ponder, Educate and Relate, Inc. The three Greater Member Representative Board positions will be divided into four geographic regions, North Dade, South Dade and Miami Proper, as defined by the Board. Only Member Representatives from within a geographic region's board vacancy may be nominated for a vote. All members will be eligible to vote for each class of board candidate. In addition to the slate of nominees presented by the Board Development Committee, any member representative may become a nominee by obtaining the signature of five percent of the Women Helping Youth Soar, Ponder, Educate and Relate, Inc. or who has been nominated by the CEO or who nominated during the quarterly meeting. The election will be held by mail in accordance with the election procedures established by the Board of Directors. Each member who is eligible to vote shall receive one ballot, and shall have a number of votes equal to the number of openings to be filled in the particular class of the ballot. These votes may be cast cumulatively within a class, where there is more than one vacancy. The nominees receiving the largest number of votes in each class of the ballot in the annual election shall be elected to those full term vacancies which exist.

Section 6: At-Large Board Members. The fourteen Board members elected at the annual meeting shall recruit and elect up to seven additional people from the community to serve as at-large members of the Board. At-Large members should represent diverse interests of the community. A majority of the board must represent organizations to serve or advocate for disadvantaged constituencies. At the first board meeting after the election, the board will identify areas of needed representation, with the goal of maintaining a board broadly representative of the nonprofit sector. The Board Development Committee will be responsible to recommend nominees for at-large positions for an election by the board at the board meeting one month after the member representative election no later than three months after the election of new members representative board members, at-large members will join the board. At-large board members will serve two-year terms, to a maximum of six years.

Section 7: Terms. All Board members shall serve three-year terms, but are eligible for re-election. However, no board member shall serve more than two three-year terms. The first Board will include members with one and two-year terms to begin staggered terms.

Section 8: Quorum. Five members will be considered a quorum. If a quorum has not convened after the second meeting when business needs to be transacted, then five members can be quorum.
