ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION OF
HILLSBOROUGH EMERGENCY LONG TERM
RECOVERY PROGRAM (HELP), INC.

The undersigned, acting as sole incorporator, adopts these Articles of Incorporation and forms a not-for-profit corporation (the "Corporation") under the Florida Not-for-Profit Corporation Act (the "Act"), as follows:

ARTICLE I.

Name

The name of the Corporation is Hillsborough Emergency Long Term Recovery Program (HELP), Inc.

ARTICLE II.

Term of Existence

Corporate existence will commence on August 22, 2005, in accordance with Section 617.0203(1) of the Act. The Corporation will have perpetual existence thereafter.

ARTICLE III.

Purposes

The purposes for which the Corporation is formed are to provide long term recovery services and serve as a voluntary organization active in disasters within Hillsborough County, Florida and the surrounding areas for the elderly, disabled, underprivileged and victims of discrimination and alienation, to build capabilities to identify, apply and manage grant funding, plan, fund and manage significant rebuilding and construction projects to repair disaster caused damage and for all other lawful purposes for a not-for-profit corporation.

ARTICLE IV.

Powers

The Corporation will have all powers granted by law to not-for-profit corporations subject to the limitations described elsewhere in these Articles of Incorporation and as may be required in order for the Corporation to maintain its nonprofit and tax-exempt status under both Florida law and the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended from time to time, or its successor laws and regulations (the "Code"). Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles of Incorporation, the Corporation will not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on: (a) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code; or (b) by a corporation contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(e)(2) of the Code. In attempting to fulfill the general nature of the objects of this Corporation, and to ensure that it meets with the requirements of an exempt organization under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code, the Corporation will strictly adhere to the following:

- (1) The Corporation will not engage in any act of self-dealing as defined in the Code that would jeopardize its tax-exempt status;
- (2) The Corporation will not allow its members or directors to have a vested interest in its assets;

(3) The Corporation will not make any investments which would jeopardize its charitable purpose.

ARTICLE V.
Limitation on Activities

No part of the net earnings of the Corporation will inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, any member, director or officer of the Corporation or any other private individual (except that reasonable compensation may be paid for services rendered to or for the Corporation affecting one or more of its purposes). Nothing in these Articles of Incorporation restricts the Corporation from reimbursing the members for funds borrowed by the Corporation or paying reasonable compensation for services performed.

ARTICLE VI.
Dissolution

Upon dissolution of this Corporation, after providing for all of the Corporation's liabilities, all assets of the Corporation shall be distributed to organizations determined exempt by the Internal Revenue Service under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code (e.g., charitable, educational, religious or scientific organizations) within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Code. None of the net assets of the Corporation will be distributed to or for the benefit of any member, trustee, officer or director of the Corporation or to any other individual.

ARTICLE VII.
Principal Office

The principal office and mailing address of the Corporation is 13524 Martin Luther King Blvd., Dover, Florida 33527.

ARTICLE VIII.
