RESTATED ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION OF THE CHARISMATIC EPISCOPAL CHURCH
DIOCESE OF FLORIDA, INC.

Pursuant to the provisions of Section 617.1007 of the Florida not for Profit Corporation Act, The Charismatic Episcopal Church Diocese of Florida, Inc., a not-for-profit corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of Florida, pursuant to a resolution duly adopted by its Bishop's Council ("Board of Directors"), hereby adopts the following Restated Articles of Incorporation:

ARTICLE I Name

The name of the corporation is THE CHARISMATIC EPISCOPAL CHURCH DIOCESE OF FLORIDA, INC. (the "Corporation" or the "Diocese") a member of the Charismatic Episcopal Church of North America ("CEC-NA").

ARTICLE II
Perpetual Existence

The Corporation shall have perpetual existence.

ARTICLE III
Tax Exempt Purpose

The Corporation is organized and shall be operated exclusively for one or more of the following purposes:

1. Religious, charitable, scientific, literary, or educational purposes, or to foster national or international amateur sports competition (but only if no part of its activities involve the provision of athletic facilities or equipment), or for the prevention of cruelty to children or animals, as specified in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), and shall not carry on any activities not permitted to be carried on by an organization exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code.

2. The Corporation shall be organized and operated as a church or convention or association of churches or as a religious organization that is an integral part of a church, engaged in performing the functions of a church, in furtherance of the above enumerated purposes exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code.

3. To apply the income, and if the Corporation so decides, the principal, of such property as the Corporation may from time to time possess, in aid of the prior enumerated purposes, including the giving of such income and principal to any other domestic or foreign charitable corporation, association, organization or trust; provided, however, that any such domestic or foreign corporation, association, organization or trust is organized and operated exclusively for charitable, religious, educational, or scientific purposes within the meaning of Code Section 501(c)(3) or the corresponding provisions of any future federal tax code.

With respect to all of the prior enumerated purposes, however, the Corporation shall be subject to the following limitations and restrictions:

a. No part of the net earnings of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, trustees, officers, or other private persons, except that the Corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the prior enumerated purposes. No part of the activities of the Corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the Corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles of Incorporation, the Corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (i) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (ii) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

b. Upon the dissolution of the Corporation, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by a court of competent jurisdiction of the county in which the principal office of the Corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

c. For any period in which the Corporation is a private foundation within the meaning of Code Section 509(a), the Corporation shall also be subject to the following additional limitations:

(i) The Corporation shall distribute its income for each tax year at such time and in such manner as to not become subject to the tax on undistributed income imposed by Section 4942 of the Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

(ii) The Corporation shall not engage in any act of self-dealing as defined in Section 4941(d) of the Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

(iii) The Corporation shall not retain any excess business holdings as defined in Section 4943 (c) of the Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

(iv) The Corporation shall not make any investments in such manner as to subject it to tax under Section 4944 of the Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

(v) The Corporation shall not make any taxable expenditures as defined in Section 4945 of the Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

The Corporation shall have and may exercise all powers necessary or convenient to effect, or which are conducive to the attainment of, any or all of the prior enumerated purposes, subject to the limitations provided herein and such limitations as are provided by law.

ARTICLE IV Membership

The Corporation is a non-stock corporation and shall have no authority to issue any capital stock. The Corporation will have no members except as provided in the Diocesan By-Laws.

ARTICLE V By-Laws

The By-Laws of the Corporation shall be known as the Diocesan By-Laws and any reference herein to "Diocesan By-Laws" shall be synonymous with the term By-Laws.

The Diocesan By-Laws may be amended, altered, rescinded and new Diocesan By-Laws may be adopted by the Bishop's Council, subject to the approval of the Provincial Ordinary of the Province, having jurisdiction over the area where the Diocese is located.

ARTICLE VI
Ecclesiastical Affiliation

The Corporation shall be a diocese within the jurisdictional boundaries of The Southeast Province of the Charismatic Episcopal Church, a not-for-profit corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of Alabama. The geographical boundaries of the Diocese shall include the geographic area of the State of Florida located East of the line constituting the Eastern most boundary of the city limits of the city of Destin, Florida (such line continuing beyond the boundaries of said city limits running North and South to the extent of the geographical boundaries of the State of Florida). The Diocese shall be organized and operated under applicable Canon Law of the Charismatic Episcopal Church adopted October 22, 1999, as amended from time to time.

ARTICLE VII
Indemnification

The Corporation shall, to the fullest extent permitted by law as now or hereafter in effect, indemnify all persons whom it may indemnify. The indemnification provided by this Article shall not limit or exclude any rights, indemnities or limitations of liabilities to which any person may be entitled, whether as a matter of law, under the By-Laws adopted by the Corporation, by agreement, vote of disinterested members of the Board of Directors or otherwise.

ARTICLE VIII

Amendments to the Articles of Incorporation

These Articles of Incorporation may be amended by the Bishop's Council, subject to the approval of the Provincial Ordinary of the Province, having jurisdiction over the area where the Diocese is located, provided, however, that any amendment will not adversely affect the status of the Corporation as an organization qualifying for tax exempt status as a church or convention or association of churches under section 501(c)(3) of the Code.
