Article IV

Principles of Autonomy

We maintain as scriptural and fundamental that the church is governed through local men qualified to rule called elders. Along with the Elders, there are deacons, who serve the congregation as it is said in Philippians 1:1. These men must fulfill the requirements in accordance with the Biblical foundation (1 Tim 3; Titus 1:5-9). This is, that the local church is sovereign under the government of Christ, and that every power exercised by each church as a congregation and its decisions made are non revocable or submitted to change by another ecclesiastic group. This church is autonomic; however, the council and advice of qualified ministers from other ecclesiastical bodies with the same Biblical principles shall be sought.

Article V

Doctrinal Foundations

The fundamental teachings of this congregation are reflected in the following declarations of faith:

1. The Scriptures are Inspired by God – The scriptures, New Testament as well as Old Testament, are verbally inspired by God and are the revelation of God to mankind, the infallible rule and authority for faith and conduct. (2 Tim 3:15-17; 1 Tes 2:13; 2 Pet 1:21).

2. There is only one true God – The only true God has been revealed as having existence in Himself “I AM”, Creator of the heavens and the earth and Redeemer of humanity. He has revealed himself incarnated; this relation and association as Father, Son and Holy Spirit (Det 6:4; Is 43:10, 11; Mat 28:19; Luke 3:22).

3. The Deity of the Lord Jesus Christ - The Lord Jesus Christ is the eternal Son of God, the Bible declares: His virgin birth (Mat 1:23, Luke 1:31, Luke 1:35), His sinless life (Heb 7:26, 1 Peter 2:22), His miracles (Acts 2:22, Acts 10:38), His substitution work on the cross (1 Cor 15:3, 2 Cor 5:21), His bodily resurrection from the dead (Mat 28:6, Luke 24:39, 1 Cor 15:4), His exaltation to the right hand of God (Acts 1:9, Acts 1:11, Acts 2:33, Phil 2:9-11, Heb 1:3).

4. The Creation, test and fall of men – Man was created good and just, because God said: “Then God said, “Let us make man in our image, in our likeness”; However, man from his own will fell into transgression, occurring not only physical death, but also spiritual death, which is eternal separation from God (Gen 1:26, 27; 2:17; 3:6; Rom 5:12-19).

5. The Salvation of man – The only hope of redemption for men is through the blood shed by Jesus Christ, the Son of God. Conditions for salvation are: Repentance towards God and faith towards Jesus Christ. By the washing of the bloodshed and the regeneration of the Holy Ghost, being justified by grace through faith, men becomes heir of God according to the hope of eternal life (Luke 24:47; John 3:3; Rom 10:13–15; Eph 2:8; Titus 2:11; 3:5–7). The evidences of salvation are: The outward evidence to all men is a life of righteousness and true holiness in all matters of life (Eph 4:24; Titus 2:12).

6. The ordinances of the Church – Baptism through immersion in water (Mat 28:19; Mark 16:16; Acts 10:47, 48; Rom 6:4). Holy Communion (2 Pedro 1:4); remembrance of his suffering and death (1 Cor 11:26); a prophesy of his second coming (1 Cor 11:26); and, a commandment to all believers, “Until He comes back”.

7. Baptism in the Holy Ghost – According to the command of Jesus Christ, the baptism of the Holy Spirit is in fact needed for a service and use of spiritual gifts in power according to each individual ministry (Luke 24:49; Acts 1:4, 8; 1 Cor 12:1–31). New birth (Acts 8:12–17; 10:44–46; 11:14–16; 15:7–9). With the baptism of the Holy Ghost, the believer received an experience of being filled with the Holy Spirit (John 7:37–39; Acts 4:8), a profound reverence to God (Acts 2:43; Heb 12:28), an intense consecration and a more intense dedication to God and his work (Acts 2:42) and an active love for God, his Word and the lost (Mark 16:20).

8. The Physical evidence of the Baptism of the Holy Ghost – The baptism of believers in the Holy Ghost is witnessed by the initial physical sign of speaking with other tongues as the Spirit of God gives them utterance (Acts 2:4). The speaking in tongues in this instance is the same in essence as the gift of tongues, but is different in purpose and use (1 Cor 12:4-10, 1 Cor 12:28)

9. Sanctification – Sanctification is an act of separation from all evil and dedication to God (Rom 12:1, 2; 1 Tes 5:23; Heb 13:12; Heb 12:14; 1 Pet 1:15, 16). Sanctification is evidenced in the believer when this one recognizes its identity with Jesus Christ in his death and resurrection, and proposes to live each day in this communion with Christ, submitting to dominion of the Holy Ghost all his faculties (Rom 6:1–11, 13; 8:1, 2, 13; Gal 2:20; Phi 2:12, 13; 1 Pet 1:5).

10. The church and its mission – The Church is the Body of Christ, the habitation of God through the Spirit, with divine appointments for the fulfillment of her great commission. Each believer, born of the Spirit, is an integral part of the General Assembly and Church of the Firstborn, which are written in heaven (Eph 1:22, 23; 2:22; Heb 12:23). Since God's purpose concerning man is to seek and to save that which is lost, to be worshipped by man, and to build a body of believers in the image of His Son, the priority reason for being of the Assemblies of God as part of the Church is: To be an agency of God for evangelizing the world (Acts 1:8, Matthew 28:19, 20, Mark 16:15, 16). To be a corporate body in which man may worship God (1 Cor 12:13). To be a channel of God's purpose to build a body of saints being perfected in the image of His Son (Eph 4:11-16, 1 Cor 2:28, 1 Cor 14:12). The church exists expressly to give continuing emphasis to this reason for being in the New Testament apostolic pattern by teaching and encouraging believers to be baptized in the Holy Spirit. This experience: Enables them to evangelize in the power of the Spirit with accompanying supernatural signs (Mark 16:15-20, Acts 4:29-31, Heb 2:3, 4). Adds a necessary dimension to worshipful relationship with God (1 Corinthians 2:10-16; 12; 13; 14). Enables them to respond to the full working of the Holy Spirit in expression of fruit and gifts and ministries as in New Testament times for the edifying of the body of Christ (Gal 5:22-26, 1 Cor 14:12, Eph 4:11,12, 1 Cor 12:28, Col 1:29).

11. The Ministry - A divinely called and scripturally ordained ministry has been provided by our Lord for the threefold purpose of leading the Church in: Evangelization of the world (Mark 16:15-20). Worship of God (John 4:23, 24). Building a body of saints being perfected in the image of His Son (Eph 4:11-16).

12. Divine Healing - Divine healing is an integral part of the gospel. Deliverance from sickness is provided for in the atonement, and is the privilege of all believers. (Is 53:4, 5, Mat 8:16, 17, James 5:14-16).

13. The Blessed Hope - The resurrection of those who have fallen asleep in Christ and their translation together with those who are alive and remain unto the coming of the Lord is the imminent and blessed hope of the church (1 Thes 4:16, 17; Rom 8:23; Titus 2:13; 1 Cor 15:51, 52).

14. The Millennial Reign of Christ - The second coming of Christ includes the rapture of the saints, which is our blessed hope, followed by the visible return of Christ with His saints to reign on earth for one thousand years (Zech 14:5, Mat 24:27; 24:30; Rev 1:7; 19:11-14; 20:1-6). This millennial reign will bring the salvation of national Israel, (Ezekiel 37:21,22, Zephaniah 3:19,20, Rom 11:26,27) and the establishment of universal peace (Isaiah 11:6-9, Psalms 72:3-8, Micah 4:3,4).

15. The Final Judgment - There will be a final judgment in which the wicked dead will be raised and judged according to their works. Whosoever is not found written in the Book of Life, together with the devil and his angels, the beast and the false prophet, will be consigned to the everlasting punishment in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone, which is the second death (Mat 25:46, Mark 9:43-48, Rev 19:20, 20:11-15, 21:8).

16. New Heavens and New Earth - "We, according to His promise, look for new heavens and a new earth wherein dwelleth righteousness." (2 Peter 3:13, Rev 21, 22).

17. Marriage – We believe that marriage according to the Holy Scriptures is constituted between a man and a woman.

18. Church Government – We believe that the government of the church is instituted by God in the Holy Scriptures and Ministers as governors appointed by God for our benefit. Resisting leaders is resisting the ordinances of God. We are not in submission to the leadership only by matters of judgment, but by the conscience that recognizes our loyalty to God by being faithful to the church and its ministers.

Article X

Regulations

1. By-law

These regulations are to provide for the construction and adoption of a group of rules, which will be in union and in conjunction to the constitution.

2. Amendment

The power to alter, correct, or annul any by-law or adopt new rules it is invested in the Board of Directors, and such amendments or alterations should be appropriate by all of the members of the Board of Directors.

I. Government

A. Type of Government

The government of Casa de Adoración Sanando La Tierra (House of Worship Healing the Land) is of Theocratic type; this is the Lordship of Christ through ministries who He has appointed, providing a divine balance in the government of the Church. This government is constituted by Elders and Deacons. The first one belongs to government, and the second to service. This church will be administered and governed by a body of elders that jointly with the Senior Pastor will lead the flock to the fulfillment of the purpose of God.

B. Relation of the Congregation and the Elders

a. What the congregation can not do:

- Choose their own leaders by the democratic method.
- Control the leadership in relation to the direction of the Church.
- Control the finances of the church in relation to the tidings and offerings.
- Discipline leadership.

b. What the Congregation can do:

- Pray for those who watch over them.
- Submit to the leadership and obey as so the leadership obeys the word of God. (Hebrews 13:7, 17, 24).
- Consent and confirm affairs related to buildings / real estate / extensions in the development of the property of the Church.
- Confirm matters of discipline or excommunication of members that do not repent. (Mathew 18:15-20 & 1 Corinthians 5 are examples of this).

II. Elders

As mentioned above, this church in its totality will be governed and directed by men and women qualified called Elders. These will be nominated according to what has been established on Article V of our constitution. The qualifications to be appointed will cover the following order:

- a. Spiritual Qualifications- spiritual life.
- b. Character Qualifications- personal life and secular.
- c. Domestic Qualifications- marital life, wife, kids, home and neighbors.
- d. Ministerial Qualifications- functions in the church.

A. Elders Responsibilities

The function of the Elders will be according with the measure of the gift or talents given to them by Christ, the Head of the Church (Mathew 25:14-30, Luke 12:41-48, 11-26).

- a. Direct the flock of the Lord (Hebrews 13, 17, 24, 1 Timothy 3:4-5).
- b. Teach the flock of the Lord (1 Timothy 5, 17, Titus 1:9, 1 Timothy 3:2).
- c. Pastor the flock of the Lord (Acts 20:17, 28; 1 Peter 5:2).
- d. Administration of the flock (Titus 1:7, 1 Peter 5:2-3).
- e. Take care of the flock (James 5:14-15).
- f. Govern the flock (1 Timothy 5:17, 1 Corinthians 12:28).
- g. To live for the flock (John 10, Jeremiah 23, 1-5)
- h. Keep the flock from false ministries (Acts 15).

B. Responsibilities of the Congregation with the Elders

Although the Elders are not perfect they are the authorities establish by God over the people. In the event that the elders need discipline, it will be done according to the Biblical pattern in Timothy 5:19-20.

- a. The congregation needs to recognize and approve them. (Rev 2:2).
- b. The congregation should appreciate and have them in high regard in the Lord (1 Thessalonians 5:12-13).
- c. Will not accept accusations against an Elder without witnesses (not only the accusers) (1 Timothy 5:19).
- d. Obey them and submit in the Lord (Acts 13:17).
- e. Called them when they are sick (James 5:14-15).
- f. Persevere in the doctrine that they teach (Acts 2:48).
- g. Pray for them (Ephesians 6:18-20).
- h. Wait for the ministry to discipline those who insist in sin. (1 Timothy 5:20), do not criticize.

III. Deacons

The New Testament does not recognize any other office but the Elder and the Deacon. The three groups of people mentioned in Philippians 1:1 are the saints, bishops and Deacons. These will direct and guide the body of Christ (the church).

A. The spirit of deacon

Jesus Christ as the head of the church gave us an example of the deacon; it was so, because He had a servant spirit. Christ is the Deacon, servant and one in all. He did not come to be served, but to serve and give his life in rescue of many. (Mark 10:42-45; Romans 15:8). To his disciples he said: "el whoever wants to be greater, will be a servant" (Mathew 20:25-28). All members of the body of Christ, be it elder, deacon or saint, must have a servant attitude – a servant spirit (1 Kings 12:6-7). Everyone must have a servant spirit, although not all have that position.

B. The Qualifications

- Spiritual Qualifications
- Character Qualifications
- Domestic Qualifications

C. The authority of the Deacon

As it is mentioned, Deacons are servers to the elders and the congregation; therefore, they have a delegated and limited authority. The measure of their authority is given by the elders.

D. Duration of the position

Different from the elders, whose position is for life, unless they are disqualified, the position of the Deacon might be limited. Being a Deacon is not a position, it is a function. This position is created by men and confirmed by God. The position and its functions are established by the elders and or Senior Pastor meanwhile his responsibilities are being fulfilled. This church recognizes women in this ministerial capacity as long as they reunite those qualifications. These women are called deaconesses.

E. Relationship of the Deacon with the elders and the congregation

- a. The deacons must maintain a servant spirit to the elders as unto the Lord.
- b. The deacons must maintain a servant spirit unto the members of the congregation to whom they serve.

IV. Pastor

This church recognizes the pastoral ministry as one of the government ministries of the church. The pastor, along with the elders, will guide the flock unto its divine purpose.

Responsibilities of the Pastor to the Congregation

1. Direct and Guide the flock (Acts 13:7-17 & 24).
2. Teach the flock (1 Timothy 5:17, Tito 1:9).
3. Pastor the flock (Acts 20:17 & 28).
4. Administer the flock (Titus 1:7).
5. Care for the flock (James 5:14-15).
6. Govern the flock (1 Timothy 5:17).
7. Live for the flock (Juan 10, Jeremiah 23:1-5).
8. Keep the flock from false ministries (Acts 15).

Responsibilities of the Congregation to the Pastor

1. The Board will assign a salary to the pastor and founder of this church in accordance with the financial condition of the church, the existing life level and considering the needs of his family.
2. The church will provide for the pastor's social security while he is functioning as the pastor.
3. The church will provide for continuous education for the pastor, including expenses for seminaries and conferences.
4. The church will provide medical insurance and a retirement plan for the pastor.

V. Ordinances

A. Baptism in water

Those who have professed Christ as their personal Savior will be baptized in immersion. These are the requirements for baptism:

1. Personal Conviction (Acts 2:37).
2. Repentance (Acts 3:38).
3. Faith (Mark 16:16, Acts 3:38).
4. Obedience (Acts 9:6, 22:16).

B. Holy Communion

This church will celebrate Holy Communion with regularity and only those who have been baptized will be able to participate of this event.

C. Discipline

In any place where there is a group of people, there must also be order; there must be rules of conduct. These rules must be obeyed with a desire of the Herat, not by imposition. It is necessary to have a disciplinary system in the church due to the sinful nature of the human being.

Discipline has two principal aspects in Scripture:

1. Restoration (Galatians 6:1).
2. Condemnation (1 Corinthians 11:29-32, 2 Corinthians 2:6-8, 11).

This church will take disciplinary actions when one or more of the following aspects are present:

A. Doctrinal offenses

1. For heresy, this is the teaching of false doctrines contrary to the Word of God.

B. Conduct offenses

This is related to the relationship between brethren.

1. Fornication (1 Corinthians 5:1)

This includes adultery, moral impurity, homosexuals, lesbianism, incest, orgies and any other immoral practice.

2. Greed (1 Corinthians 5:11)

Love of Money, this is idolatry

3. Idolatry (1 Corinthians 5:11)

Anything between God and the believer, literal idols or spiritual idols.

4. Cursing (1 Corinthians 5:11)

Abusive language, one that is against everything and talks about their leaders or brethren, one hard to deal with.

5. Drunkenness (1 Corinthians 5:11)

6. Stealing (1 Corinthians 5:11)

7. Out of order conduct (2 Thessalonians 3:6-15)

8. For creating division (Romans 16:16-18)

9. Sectaries (1 Corinthians 3:1-3, Ephesians 5:12)

10. For not discerning the body of Christ (1 Corinthians 11:23-32)

Discipline in the church will be administered by the elders. In the event of ex-communication the congregation will agree to it. As it is said in our Constitution, all discipline will be consistent with the Biblical patterns. Furthermore, any voluntary violation to the rules of conduct that this church has adopted, with relation to the dress code, social activities, sinful habits and illicit businesses will be enough grounds for discipline.

VI. Additions

1. We believe that many of modern fashion is not appropriate for the house of the Lord.

Believers in particular should not be influenced by traditions of this world. It is a Biblical principle that the believer will dress in a decent manner with modesty, understanding that the outer ward must not overcome the inward. For the members of our church we have adopted the following dress code in relation to our weekly celebrations in the house of the Lord, and any other activity to the public. The following is constituted inappropriate dress code in the House of the Lord.

- Sisters in pants
 - Mini Skirts
 - Sport ware
 - Any kind of provocative or scandalous clothing (men or women)
 - Shorts
2. In addition, with relation to accessories, we recommend using modesty. (1 Peter 3:3-4)
 3. We are against any kina of use (in any manner) of alcoholic beverages, tobacco and illicit drugs. (2 Corinthians 7:11).
 4. With relations to bank deposits, this church will not make personal loans to any person or company, and will not co-sign for any business in particular if it is not related to church matters.
 5. With relations to musical instruments, motor vehicles, and any other equipment for church use, we do not allow personal use of these.
