ARTICLE I

The name and principal address of the corporation shall be:

ARTICLE II

The purposes and objects of the Condominium Association shall be to administer the operation and management of 751 CONDOMINIUM, a Condominium (the "Condominium"), to be established as a condominium in accordance with the Florida Condominium Act (the "Act") upon certain land (the "Land") situated in Miami-Dade County, Florida (the "County"); and to perform the acts and duties incident to operation and management of the Condominium in accordance with the provisions of these Articles of Incorporation, the Bylaws of the Condominium Association which will be adopted (the "Bylaws"), and the Declaration of Condominium of the Condominium (the "Declaration," capitalized terms used but not otherwise defined herein will have the meaning set forth in the Declaration), which will be recorded in the Public Records of the County, if, as and when the Land, and the improvements constructed thereon, are submitted to the condominium form of ownership; and to own, operate, encumber, lease, manage, sell, convey, exchange, and otherwise deal with the Land, the improvements and such other property, real and/or personal, as may be or become part of the Condominium (the "Condominium Property") to the extent necessary or convenient in the administration of the Condominium. The Condominium Association shall be conducted as a non-profit organization for the benefit of its members.

ARTICLE III

The Condominium Association shall have the following powers:

ARTICLE IV

The qualification of members, the manner of their admission to and termination of membership, and voting by members shall be as follows:

A. The record Owners (as defined in the Declaration) of all Units in the Condominium for time to time shall be members of the Condominium Association, and no other persons or entities shall be entitled to membership, except as provided for in Paragraph E, Article IV hereof.

B. Membership shall be established by the acquisition of fee title to a Unit in the Condominium, or by acquisition of a fee ownership interest therein, by voluntary conveyance or operation of law, and the membership of any person or entity shall be automatically terminated when such person or entity is divested of all title or ownership in such Unit; provided, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as terminating the membership of any person or entity owning fee title to or a fee ownership interest in two or more Units at any time while such person or entity shall retain fee title to or a fee ownership interest in any Unit.

C. The interest of a member in the funds and assets of the Condominium Association cannot be assigned, hypothecated, transferred or encumbered in any manner, except as an appurtenance to the Unit(s) owned by such member. The funds and assets of the Condominium Association shall be expended, held or used only for the benefit of the membership and for purposes authorized herein, in the Declaration, and in the Bylaws.

D. On all matters on which the membership shall be entitled to vote, there shall be one vote appurtenant to each Unit and the total number of votes shall be equal to the number of Overall Units. If a Unit Owner owns more than one (1) Unit, the Unit Owner shall be entitled to one (1) vote for each Unit owned.

E. Until such time as the Condominium is established by recordation of the Declaration, the membership of the Condominium Association shall be comprised of the subscribers to these Articles; each of whom shall be entitled to cast a vote on all matters upon which the membership would be entitled to vote.

ARTICLE V

The Condominium Association shall have perpetual existence.

ARTICLE VI

ARTICLE VII

The affairs of the Condominium Association shall be managed by the President of the Condominium Association, assisted by the Vice President(s), Secretary and Treasurer and, if any, the Assistant Secretaries and Assistant Treasurers (collectively, the "Officers"), subject to the directions of the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors, or the President with the approval of the Board of Directors, may employ a managing agent, agency, and/or other managerial and supervisory personnel or entity to administer or assist in the administration of the operation and management of the Condominium and the affairs of the Condominium Association, and any and all such persons(s) and/or entity(ies) may be so employed without regard to whether any such person or entity is a member of the Condominium Association or a Director or officer of the Condominium Association, as the case may be.

ARTICLE VIII

The number of members on the first Board of Directors, who shall serve until their successors are designated by Playa de Oro, LLC, a Florida corporation (“Developer”) or elected at the first annual meeting of the Condominium Association following recordation of the Declaration of Condominium, shall be three (3). Only the Developer, or its agent, may hold multiple positions on the Board of Directors. The number of members of succeeding Boards of Directors shall also be three (3), or as otherwise provided from time to time by the Bylaws, and they shall be elected by Developer or the members of the Condominium Association at the annual meetings of the membership as provided by the Bylaws. Unit Owners, other than Developer, shall be entitled to elect, as a group and in a manner to be provided in the Bylaws, a majority of the members of the Board of Directors upon the earlier to occur of:

- D. When some of the Overall Units have been conveyed to purchasers and none of the others are being constructed or offered for sale by Developer in the ordinary course of business; or
- E. Seven years after recordation of the Declaration.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, Developer shall be entitled at any time to waive in writing its rights hereunder, and thereafter to vote in elections for members of the Board of Directors of the Condominium Association in the same manner as any Unit Owner of the Condominium Association. At the time Unit Owners, other than Developer, elect a majority of the members of the Board of Directors, Developer shall relinquish control of the Condominium Association and shall deliver to the Condominium Association, at Developer's expense, all property of the Unit Owners and of the Condominium Association held or controlled by Developer. Within seventy-five (75) days after the Unit Owners, other than Developer, are entitled to elect a member or members of the Board of Directors, the Condominium Association shall call, and give not less than sixty (60) days notice of a meeting at which such Directors are to be elected, which elections will otherwise be held in accordance with the provisions of the Bylaws. #### ARTICLE IX

The Board of Directors shall elect and may by majority vote separate or remove from office the President, Secretary, Treasurer, and as many Vice Presidents, Assistant Secretaries and Assistant Treasurers as the Board of Directors shall deem advisable from time to time. The President shall be elected from the membership of the Board of Directors, but no other officer need be a Director. The same person may hold two offices, the duties of which are not incompatible; provided, however, that the office of President and Vice President shall not be held by the same person, nor shall the office of President and Secretary or Assistant Secretary be held by the same person.

ARTICLE XIV

The foregoing right of indemnification shall be in addition to and not exclusive of all other rights to which such Director or officer may be entitled.

proposed amendment or amendments in reasonably detailed form, which notice shall be given in the same manner as notice of the call of a special meeting of the members as the procedure for giving such notice is described in the Bylaws; provided, that proposed amendments to these Articles of Incorporation may be considered and voted upon at annual meetings of the members. If mailed, such notice shall be deemed to be properly given when deposited in the United States mail, addressed to the member at his post office address as it appears on the records of the Condominium Association, with postage thereon prepaid. Any member, may, by written waiver of notice signed by such member, waive such notice, and such waiver when filed in the records of the Condominium Association, whether before, during or after the holding of the meeting, shall be deemed equivalent to the giving of such notice to such member. At such meeting the amendment or amendment proposed must be approved by an affirmative vote of Owners of at least seventy-five percent (75%) of the Overall Units which are represented in person or by proxy as allowed by applicable law at any meeting at which a quorum is present in order for such amendment or amendments to become effective. Thereupon, such amendment or amendments of these Articles of Incorporation shall be transcribed and certified in such form as may be necessary to file the same in the office of the Secretary of State of the State of Florida. A certified copy of each such amendment of these Articles of Incorporation shall be recorded in the Public Records of the County, within thirty (30) days from the date on which the same is filed in the office of the Secretary of State. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Article XV, no amendment to these Articles of Incorporation which shall abridge, amend or alter the right of Developer to designate and select members of the Board of Directors of the Condominium Association, as provided in Article VIII hereof, may be adopted or become effective without the prior written consent of Developer.
