Duncan U. Fletcher High School Band Boosters Association, Inc.

The undersigned for the purpose of forming a nonprofit corporation under the Florida Not for Profit Corporation Act, Florida Statutes Chapter 617, makes and adopts the following articles of incorporation:

Article I
Corporate Name

The name of the corporation is Duncan U. Fletcher High School Band Boosters Association, Inc., hereinafter referred to below as the "corporation".

Article II
Corporation Not for Profit

The corporation is a not for profit corporation under Chapter 617, Florida Statutes. The corporation is not formed for pecuniary gain or profit. Other than the payment of reasonable compensation and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article VI (Purposes) of these Articles, no part of the income in or assets of the corporation is distributable to or for the benefit of its directors, officers or members, except to the extent permissible under these articles, under law and under 26 USCA §501 (c) (3) (referred to below as "code"). If the corporation ever has members, no member shall have any vested right, interest or privilege in or to the assets, income or property of the corporation and not part of the income or assets of the corporation shall be distributable to or for the benefit of its members, except to the extent permissible under these Articles, under law and under 26 USCA §501 (c) (3).

Article III
Address

The initial mailing address of the corporation shall be c/o Duncan U. Fletcher High School, 700 Seagate Avenue, Neptune Beach, Florida 32266, or at any other address as may be subsequently designated and authorized by the board of directors of the corporation. The principal office of the corporation shall be located at the same address, or at any other place as may be subsequently designated and authorized by the board of directors of the corporation.

Article IV Registered Agent

The name and address of the initial registered agent is Cindy Bohn, whose address is 3560 South Third Street, Jacksonville Beach, Florida, 32250, who is appointed the initial registered agent of the corporation and who is authorized to accept service of process within this State.

Article V Duration

The duration (term) of the corporation is perpetual.

Article VI Purpose

The corporation is organized, and shall be operated exclusively for as a qualified band booster association for purposes described in 26 USCA §501 (c)(3), or corresponding provisions of any subsequent federal tax laws ("code") including, but not limited to, the following particular purposes:

- A. To provide volunteers in terms of time, talent and fund raising activities to support the Duncan U. Fletcher High School Band
- B. To solicit, collect, receive, and otherwise raise gifts and financial and other types of contributions and raise funds through sponsorship fees, individual band student participation fees, concession stand sales, and dispose of the same and in general do all things that may appear necessary and useful in accomplishing the purposes set out here. All of the assets, funds and earnings of the corporation shall be used exclusively for the purposes set here, including the payment of incidental expenses; and no part of the earnings shall inure to the benefit of any private shareholder or individual. Funds collected go into the general fund of the band (except certain fundraisers as detailed in item C below) to be used to purchase music, instruments, uniforms and other items necessary to enable to band program to function at optimal standards.
- C. Students will be allowed to accrue individual credit on selected fundraisers as a percentage of profit from said fundraiser strictly for the purpose of assisting the student to pay for Band program costs. No individual shall profit from such accrual.
- D. The above purposes shall be construed as both objects and powers, and the enumeration of specific purposes shall not be held to limit or restrict in any manner the powers of this corporation.
- E. This corporation shall not, as a substantial part of its activities, carry on propaganda or otherwise attempt to influence legislation; nor shall it participate or intervene (by publication or distribution of any statements or otherwise) in any political campaign on behalf or, or in opposition to, any candidate for public office.

Article VII

Powers

Solely for the above purposes, the powers of the corporation shall be as enumerated in the Florida Not For Profit Corporation Act, Chapter 617, Florida Statutes, and shall include, but not be limited to, the following:

- A. To provide volunteers in terms of time, talent and fund raising activities to support the Duncan U. Fletcher High School Band
- B. To exercise all rights and powers conferred by the laws of the State of Florida on nonprofit corporations, including, but not limited to, those set forth in Florida Statutes Chapter 617 and the following powers: to acquire by bequest, devise, gift, grant, donation, contribution, purchase, lease or otherwise any property of any sort or nature without limitation as to its amount or value, and to hold, invest, reinvest, manage, use, apply, employ, sell, expend, disburse, lease, mortgage, convey, option, donate or otherwise dispose of the property and the income, principal and proceeds of the property.
- C. To engage in and transact any other lawful activity, solely in furtherance of the above purpose, for which non-profit corporations may be incorporated under the Florida Not for Profit Corporation Act, and any successor or amendment to the Florida Not for Profit Corporation Act.
- D. To do any other things as incidental to the powers of the corporation necessary or desirable in order to accomplish the purposes of the corporation.

Article VIII

Tax Exempt Status

It is intended that the corporation shall have and continue to have the status of corporation that is exempt from federal income taxation 26 USCA §501 (a) as an organization described in 26 USCA §501 (c) (3) and as defined in 26 USCA §509. These articles shall be construed accordingly, and all powers and activities of the corporation shall be limited accordingly.

Article IX
Board of Directors

There shall be a board of directors consisting of at least three individuals. Except for any limitation imposed by these articles or the bylaws, the board of directors shall have the exclusive power and authority to manage and control the affairs of the corporation, subject to the charitable purposes stated herein. The initial directors shall be elected by the incorporators. After that, each director shall be elected by majority vote of the board of directors in the manner and at the times set forth in the bylaws. Any director may be removed by the affirmative vote of at least two-thirds of the board of directors. The names and address of the persons who are to serve as the initial board of directors are:

Name	Address
Robyn Misco	14019 Beach Boulevard, #966 Jacksonville, FL 32250
Belinda Wallace	551 Peregrine Court Jacksonville, FL 32225
Alice Richardson	700 Seagate Avenue Neptune Beach, FL 32266
Louann Niznik	13113 Wildflower Place West Jacksonville, FL 32246
Eileen Knowles	4015 Demery Drive West Jacksonville, FL 32250

Any action required or permitted to be taken by the board of directors under any provision of law may be taken without a meeting, if all the members on the board individually or collectively consent in writing to the action. Written consent or consents shall be filed with the minutes of the proceedings of the board, and any action by written consent shall have the same force and effect as if taken by unanimous vote of directors. Any certificate or other document filed under any provision of law that relates to action taken in this manner shall state that the action was taken by unanimous written consent of the board of directors without a meeting and that the articles of incorporation and bylaws of this corporation authorize the directors to act in this manner. This statement shall be prima facie evidence of the directors' authority.

Article X
Officers

The officers of the corporation may consist of a president, one or more vice presidents, a secretary, a treasurer, and any other officers and assistance officers as may be provided in the bylaws or by resolution of the board of directors. Each officer shall be elected by majority vote of the board of directors (and may be removed by majority vote of the board of directors) at such time and in such manner as may be prescribed by the bylaws of by law.

Article XI

Incorporators

The name and address of the initial incorporator is as follows:

Cindy Bohn
3560 South Third Street
Jacksonville Beach, Florida 32250

Article XII

Bylaws

The bylaws of the corporation are to be made and adopted by the board of directors and may be altered, amended or rescinded only by a two-thirds vote of the directors then in office at any meeting of the board of directors called for that purpose (not just those attending the meeting at which the action is taken). The bylaws of the corporation may not be written in such a way wherein any provision of the 501(a) of the Internal Revenue Code or corresponding provisions of any subsequent federal tax laws and any other federal law, as written or amended, would bring about the denial or loss of exemption under 501 (a).

Article XIII

Amendment

The corporation reserves the right to amend or repeal any provision contained in these articles of incorporation or any amendment to them only by a two-thirds vote of the directors then in office at any meeting of the board of directors called for that purpose (not just those attending the meeting at which the action is taken).

Article XIV

Indemnification and Civil Liability Immunity

The corporation shall indemnify each director and each officer, including former directors and officers, of the corporation against all expenses and liabilities, including reasonable attorneys fees, reasonably incurred by or imposed on the person in connection with any proceeding or any settlement of any proceeding to which he or she may be a party or in which he or she may become involved by reason of his or her being or having been a director or officer of the corporation, or by reason of him or her having served the corporation at its request, whether or not he or she is a director or officer serving the corporation at the time the expenses or liabilities are incurred, except when the director or officer serving the corporation is adjudged guilty of willful misfeasance or malfeasance in the performance of his or her duties; provided that in the event of a settlement before entry of judgment, the indemnification shall apply only when the board of directors approve the settlement and reimbursement as being in the best interest of the corporation. This right of indemnification shall be in addition to and not exclusive of all other rights to which the director or officer serving the corporation may be entitled. It is intended that the corporation be an organization for which the directors and officers serving the corporation are indemnified and immune from civil liability to the fullest extent allowed by law, including but not limited to, Chapter 617, Florida Statutes, and other similar laws.

Article XV

Commencement of Corporate Existence

The date when the corporate existence shall commence is the time of the filing of the articles of incorporation by the Department of State.

Article XVI

Dissolution

On the dissolution of the corporation, the board of directors shall, after paying or making provision for the payment of all of the liabilities of the corporation, distribute all of the assets of the corporation exclusively for support of a music program in such manner and to such qualified organization or organizations as the board of directors shall determine. Any of the assets not so distributed in accordance with the direction of any court having jurisdiction in the county in which the principal office of the corporation is then located, exclusively for the above purposes of the corporation or to a qualified organization or organizations as the court shall determine. For purposes of this article, an organization is a "qualified organization" only if, at the time of receiving the assets, it is operated exclusively for the purposes described in 26 USCA §170(c)(1) or 26 USCA §170 (c)(2)(B) and is described in 26 USCA §509 (a)(1), (2) or (3).

In witness of the above, for the purposes of forming this corporation under the laws of the State of Florida, we, the undersigned incorporators, have signed these articles of incorporation on July 5, 2006.
