Article III – Purposes and Powers

A. The general purposes and powers are to have and exercise all rights and powers conferred on corporations formed under the laws of the State of Florida. In furtherance but not in limitation of the foregoing charitable and educational purposes, the Corporation shall have the following powers:

1. To solicit, collect and receive money and other assets, and to administer funds and contributions received by grant, gift, deed, bequest or devise, and otherwise to acquire money, securities, property rights and services of every kind and description;
2. To hold, bequest, expend, contribute, use, sell or otherwise dispose of any money, securities, property, rights or services so acquired for the purposes above mentioned;
3. To engage in any and all other activities which will directly or indirectly improve the welfare and conditions of said residents and groups; and
4. To exercise all other rights and powers conferred upon corporation formed under the General Nonprofit Law of the State of Florida, provided however, that the Corporation shall not engage in any activities or exercise any powers that are not in furtherance of the specific and primary charitable and educational purposes of this Corporation.

B. The specific purposes for which this corporation is formed are exclusively charitable and educational. The mission of One Love - One Community Foundation, Inc. is to engage in youth, family, and community development programming and related activities in order to improve the lives of underserved residents. Our objectives are the following:

1. To endeavor to improve cooperation among all youth, families and communities through educational, digital inclusion, and cultural outreach programs and events which provide opportunities for achievement for all and promote healing, reconciliation, and peaceful community interaction and unity among said residents;

2. To facilitate partnerships between the business sector and educational institutions (elementary and / or secondary schools) to ensure equity of resources, a plethora of experiences, and well-founded relationships among youth, families, teachers, and the business community; and
3. To prevent adversarial and violent acts between youth by providing tangible nonviolent, collaborative alternatives and solutions to violence; and
4. To provide hunger and homeless relief for youth and families.

C. All of the foregoing purposes and powers shall be exercised exclusively for charitable and educational purposes in such manner that the Corporation shall qualify as an exempt organization under Section 501 ( c ) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code as it is currently and shall hereafter be in force and effect.

D. Upon dissolution of the corporation, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501( c ) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code or future federal tax code.
