ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION
OF
DUO MASTER ASSOCIATION, INC.

The undersigned incorporator, desiring to form a corporation not for profit under Chapter 617, Florida Statutes, as amended, hereby adopts the following Articles of Incorporation:

ARTICLE I

NAME AND ADDRESS

The name of the corporation shall be the DUO MASTER ASSOCIATION, INC. The principal address of the corporation shall be 6535 Nova Drive, Suite 106, Davie, Florida 33317. For convenience, the corporation shall be referred to in this instrument as the "Master Association", these Articles of Incorporation as the "Articles", and the By-Laws of the Master Association as the "By-Laws".

ARTICLE II

PURPOSES AND POWERS

2.1 Objects and Purposes. The objects and purposes of the Master Association are those objects and purposes as are authorized by the Declaration of Master Association Covenants, Easements and Restrictions for Duo recorded (or to be recorded) in the Public Records of Broward County, Florida, as hereafter amended and/or supplemented from time to time (the "Master Declaration"). The further objects and purposes of the Master Association are to preserve the values and amenities in The Properties, as same are defined in the Master Declaration, and to maintain the Common Areas thereof and any other portion of The Properties owned and/or maintained by the Master Association, for the benefit of the Members of the Master Association.

2.2 Not for Profit. The Master Association is not organized for profit and no part of the net earnings, if any, shall inure to the benefit of any Member or individual person, firm or corporation. Upon dissolution, all assets of the Master Association shall be transferred only to another not-for-profit corporation or as otherwise authorized by the Florida not-for-profit corporation statute.

2.3 The powers of the Master Association shall include and be governed by the following:

2.3.1 General. The Master Association shall have all of the common-law and statutory powers of a corporation not for profit under the Laws of Florida that are not in conflict with the provisions of these Articles, the Master Declaration, or the By-Laws.

2.3.2 Enumeration. The Master Association shall have the powers and duties set forth in subsection 2.3.1 above, except as limited by these Articles, the By-Laws and the Master Declaration, and all of the powers and duties reasonably necessary to operate the Master Association pursuant to the Master Declaration, and as more particularly described in the By-Laws, as they may be amended from time to time, including, but not limited to, the following:

(a) To make and collect Assessments and other charges against Members and Owners, and to use the proceeds thereof in the exercise of its powers and duties.

(b) To buy, own, operate, lease, sell, trade and mortgage both real and personal property.

(c) To maintain, repair, replace, reconstruct, add to and operate the Common Areas and other portions of The Properties owned and/or maintained by the Master Association, and other property acquired or leased by the Master Association.

(d) To purchase insurance upon the Common Areas and insurance for the protection of the Master Association, its officers, directors and Members.

(e) To make and amend reasonable rules and regulations for the maintenance, conservation and use of the Common Areas, Lots and Units and for the health, comfort, safety and welfare of the Members.

(f) To enforce by legal means the provisions of the Master Declaration, these Articles, the By-Laws, and the Rules and Regulations for the use of the Common Areas, Lots and Units, subject, however, to the limitation regarding assessing Lots and Units owned by the Developer for fees and expenses relating in any way to claims or potential claims against the Developer as set forth in the Master Declaration and/or By-Laws.

(g) To contract for the management and maintenance of the Common Areas and other property owned and/or maintained by the Master Association and to authorize a management agent (which may be an affiliate of the Developer) to assist the Master Association in carrying out its powers and duties by performing such functions as the submission of proposals, collection of Assessments, preparation of records, enforcement of rules and maintenance, repair and replacement of the Common Areas and other property owned and/or maintained by the Master Association with such funds as shall be made available by the Master Association for such purposes. The Master Association and its officers shall, however, retain at all times the powers and duties granted by the Master Declaration, By-Laws and these Articles, including, but not limited to, the making of Assessments, promulgation of rules and execution of contracts on behalf of the Master Association.

(h) To employ personnel to perform the services required for the proper operation, maintenance, conservation, and use of the other property owned and/or maintained by the Master Association.

ARTICLE III

MEMBERS

The Members of the Master Association shall be as set forth in the Master Declaration and the By-Laws of the Master Association.

ARTICLE X

INDEMNIFICATION

Section 10.1. Indemnity. The Master Association shall indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or contemplated action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, by reason of the fact that he is or was a director, employee, officer or agent of the Master Association, against expenses (including attorneys' fees and appellate attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with such action, suit or proceeding, unless (a) it is determined by a court of competent jurisdiction, after all available appeals have been exhausted or not pursued by the proposed indemnitee, that he acted with fraudulent or criminal intent, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, that he had reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful, and (b) such court further determines specifically that indemnification should be denied. The termination of any action, suit or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person acted fraudulently, and with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, that he had reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful.

Section 10.2. Expenses. A Director, officer, employee or agent of the Master Association shall be indemnified and promptly defended in any action, suit or proceeding referred to in Section 10.1 above or in defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, he shall be indemnified against expenses (including attorneys' fees and appellate attorneys' fees) actually incurred by him in connection therewith in defense of any claim referred to in Section 10.1 herein. Assessments may be made by the Association to cover any expenses or other amounts to be paid by the Association in common with the indemnification provided herein.

Section 10.3. Advances. Expenses incurred in defending a civil or criminal action, suit or proceeding shall be paid by the Master Association in advance of the final disposition of such action, suit or proceeding through all available appeals.

Section 10.4. Miscellaneous. The indemnification provided by this Article shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those seeking indemnification may be entitled under any by-law, agreement, vote of Members or otherwise, both as to action in his official capacity while holding such office or otherwise, and shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be director, officer, employee or agent and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such person.

In no event shall any party entitled to indemnity herein be deemed to have acted fraudulently with respect to the Master Association if the indemnified party acted (i) based upon advice of legal counsel or other professional advisor or (ii) in a manner consistent with reasonable business judgment.

Section 10.5. Insurance. The Master Association shall have the power to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the Master Association, or is or was serving at the request of the Master Association as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against any liability asserted against him and incurred by him in any such capacity, or arising out of his status as such, whether or not the Master Association would have the power to indemnify him against such liability under the provisions of this Article.

Section 10.6. Amendment. Anything to the contrary herein notwithstanding, the provisions of this Article X may not be amended without the prior written consent of all persons whose interest would be adversely affected by such amendment.

ARTICLE XI REGISTERED AGENT

Until changed, Gary A. Poliakoff, J.D. shall be the registered agent of the Master Association and the registered office shall be at 3111 Stirling Road, Ft. Lauderdale, FL 33312.
