TALLAHASSEE, FLORIDA

I, the undersigned hereby mutually agree to unite and associate ourselves together for the purpose of becoming incorporated under the laws of the State of Florida applicable to corporations not for profit under Section 617.013 of the Florida Statutes, and for this purpose, I hereby make, execute and adopt the following Articles of Incorporation:

ARTICLE I. NAME

The name of this corporation is the THE WILKINS-MIDDLETON FOUNDATION, INC.

ARTICLE II. TERM OF EXISTENCE

The term of existence is perpetual. Corporate existence will begin when the corporation is filed with the Secretary of State.

ARTICLE III. PURPOSES

The purposes for which the Corporation is organized are:

A. To provide an organization which will support Education, Cultural Arts, Children Charities, Community Organizations and be an organization contributions to which are deductible as charitable contributions under Internal Revenue Code Section 170 during life and Section 2055 at death.

B. To receive and maintain a fund or funds of real and personal property, or both, subject to the restrictions and limitations hereinafter set forth; to use and apply the whole or any part of the income therefrom and the principal thereof exclusively for charitable, religious, literary, or educational purposes, to achieve the purposes of this organization within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and its Regulations as they now exist or as they may hereafter be amended.

C. To make donations to existing and deserving exempt organizations described in Section 501(c)(3) and Section 170(c)(2) in order to benefit the community and provide scholarships through donations to such organizations.

Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the corporation is organized exclusively for one or more of the purposes as specified in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, and shall not carry on any activities not permitted to be carried on by a corporation exempt from Federal income tax under Internal Revenue Code Section 501(c)(3) or corresponding provisions of any subsequent Federal tax law.

No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of any member, trustee, director, officer of the corporation, or any private individual (except that reasonable compensation may be paid for services rendered to or for the corporation), and no member, trustee, officer of the corporation or any private individual shall be entitled to share in the distribution of any of the corporate assets on dissolution of the corporation.

No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be carrying on propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation (except as otherwise provided by Internal Revenue Code Section 501(h) or participating in or intervening in (including the publication or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office.

In the event of dissolution, the residual assets of the organization will be turned over to one or more organizations which themselves are exempt as organizations described in Sections 501(c)(3) and 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, or corresponding sections of any prior or future Internal Revenue Code, or to the Federal, State or local government for exclusive public purpose.

In any taxable year in which the corporation is a private foundation as described in Internal Revenue Code Section 509(a), the Corporation shall distribute its income for said period at such time and manner as not to subject it to tax under Internal Revenue Code Section 4942, and the Corporation shall not (A) engage in any act of self-dealing as defined in Internal Revenue Code Section 4941(d) or retain any excess business holdings as defined in Internal Revenue Code Section 4943(c); (B) make any investments in such manner as to subject the corporation to tax under Internal Revenue Code Section 4944; or (C) Make any taxable expenditure as defined in Internal Revenue Code Section 4945(d) or corresponding provisions of any subsequent Federal tax laws.
