SECRETARY OF STATE
TALLAHASSEE, FLORIDA

ARTICLE I - NAME

The name of this corporation is ALYJAH Group, Inc.

ARTICLE II - DURATION

This corporation shall have perpetual existence, and the corporate existence will commence on the filing of these Articles by the Department of State.

ARTICLE III - PURPOSE

This corporation is organized for all lawful purposes permitted to be carried out by a corporation non-for-profit, limited however to such purposes as are permitted by an organization recognized as an exempt organization pursuant to Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, as explained in the relevant Treasury Regulations ("Internal Revenue Code"). The purposes of the Corporation shall include, but shall not be limited to, the following lawful purposes:

1. To operate educational programs that focus both on academics and on decreasing the causative, underlying factors that lead to academic failure and juvenile delinquency among at-risk youths.
2. To assist in the healing process, including bereavement and grief counseling, for parents, families, and friends of those affected by the loss of loved ones due to murder or other violence.
3. To create and administer a volunteer service program to care for senior-aged people in the community, to monitor their living conditions, and to provide assistance with necessary errands.

4. To partner with the School Board for Miami-Dade County, Florida, to implement and coordinate truancy prevention for all levels of public school students.

5. To assist minors and school-aged youth to make life decisions opposing crime and criminal activities.

6. The foregoing purposes are subject to the general limitation that the purposes for which the Corporation is organized are to receive and maintain real or personal property, or both, and, subject to the restrictions and limitations hereinafter set forth, to use and apply the whole or any part of the income therefrom and the principal thereof exclusively for charitable, religious, scientific, literary, or educational purposes either directly or by contributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

7. No part of the net earnings of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, any director or officer of the Corporation or any member of the Corporation or any other private individual (except that reasonable compensation may be paid for services rendered to or for the Corporation affecting one or more of its purposes), and no director or officer of the Corporation or any private individual shall be entitled to share in the distribution of any of the corporate assets on dissolution of the Corporation.

8. The Corporation shall distribute its income for each taxable year at such time and in such manner as not to become subject to tax on undistributed income imposed by Section 4942 of the Internal Revenue Code. The Corporation shall not engage in any act of self-dealing as defined in Section 4941(d) of the Internal Revenue Code. The Corporation shall not retain any excess business holdings as defined in Section 4943(c) of the Internal Revenue Code. The Corporation shall not make any investments in such manner as to subject it to tax under Section 4944 of the Internal Revenue Code. The Corporation shall not make any taxable expenditures as defined in Section 4945(d) of the Internal Revenue Code.

9. Upon the dissolution of the Corporation, the Board of Directors shall, after paying or making provision for the payment of all the liabilities of the Corporation, dispose of all of the assets of the Corporation exclusively for the purpose of the Corporation in such manner, or to such organization or organizations organized and operated exclusively for charitable, educational, religious, or scientific purposes as shall at the time qualify as an exempt organization or organizations under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, as the Board of Directors shall determine. Any of such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by a court of competent jurisdiction in the county in which the principal office of the Corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as the Court shall determine, that are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.
