ARTICLE III – PURPOSE

The purposes for which this corporation is formed are exclusively charitable, educational and scientific and consist of the following:

- 1 To raise the economic, educational and social levels of needy disadvantaged people worldwide, including members of minority communities, who are substantially unemployed, underemployed, or whose income is below normally acceptable poverty guidelines, to foster and promote community wide interest and concern for the problems of said people to the end that (a) educational and economic opportunities may be expanded; (b) sickness, poverty, crime, and environmental degradation may be lessened; and (c) racial, tribal, sectarian tensions, prejudice, and discrimination, economic, and otherwise, may be eliminated.
2. To expand the opportunities available to said people and groups to own, manage, and operate business enterprises in economically depressed areas; to assist said people and groups in developing entrepreneurial and management skills necessary for the successful operation of business enterprises; and to assist said people and groups in obtaining financial support from other sources.
3. To expand opportunities available to said people and groups to obtain adequate low cost housing accommodations by constructing, rehabilitating, and providing decent, safe and sanitary housing in their communities for persons and families of low-income who otherwise would not be able to find or afford a suitable place to live. It is the purpose of the corporation thereby to relieve the poor, distressed, underprivileged and indigent by enabling them to secure the basic human needs of decent shelter and to thus lessen the burdens of government and promote the social welfare. To provide such housing through rehabilitation of existing substandard buildings and construction of new facilities in the place of blighted structures or blighted vacant sites in the place of blighted structures or blighted vacant sites for the purpose of combating the deterioration of the community and contributing to its physical improvement.
4. To aid, support, and assist by gifts, contributions, or otherwise, other corporations, community chests, funds and foundations organized and operated exclusively for charitable, educational or scientific purposes, no part of the net earnings of which inures to the benefit of any private shareholder or individual, and no substantial part of the activities of which is carrying on propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation.
5. To do any and all lawful activities which may be necessary, useful, or desirable for the furtherance, accomplishment, fostering, or attaining of the foregoing purposes, either directly or indirectly, and either alone or in conjunction or cooperation with others, whether such others be persons or organizations of any kind or nature, such as corporations, firms, association, trusts, institution, foundations, government, or governmental bureaus, departments or agencies.
