- 10.6 Standards. A Director shall discharge his duties as a director, including any duties as a member of a Committee: in good faith; with the care an ordinary prudent person in a like position would exercise under similar circumstances; and in a manner reasonably believed by such Director to be in the best interests of the Association or not opposed to the best interests of the Association. Unless a Director has actual knowledge concerning a matter in question that makes reliance unwarranted, a Director, in discharging his duties, may rely on information, opinions, reports or statements, including financial statements and other data, if prepared or presented by: one or more officers or employees of the Association whom the Director reasonably believes to be reasonable and competent in the manners presented; legal counsel, accountants, management or other agents, consultants, architects, or engineers or other persons or entities as to matters the Director reasonably believes are or should be within the persons' professional or expert competence; or a Committee of which the Director is not a member if the Director reasonably believes the Committee merits confidence or has no reason to believe the Committee does not merit confidence. A Director is not liable for any action taken as a director, or any failure to take action, if he performed the duties of his office in compliance with the foregoing standards. The foregoing standards are hereinafter collectively referred to as the "Standard of Care").

ARTICLE 11 INDEMNIFICATION

The termination of any proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, or conviction or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person did not act in accordance with the Standard of Care or, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful. Indemnitee shall be presumed to have acted in good faith if it acted in accordance with the Standard of Care and/or had no reason to believe such action, or failure to act, was unlawful or if such action or failure to act was consistent with advice received from any other Indemnitee or an attorney.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, in the absence of an adjudication by a court of competent jurisdiction after final appeal that the Indemnitee is not entitled to indemnification hereunder, including the situation where a claim is not pending before a court of competent jurisdiction, the Association shall automatically indemnify such Indemnitee as further provided herein.
- 11.5 Advancing Expenses. Expenses incurred by an officer or director in defending a civil or criminal proceeding, or the threat of same, shall be paid by the Association, as such expenses are incurred, in advance of the final disposition of such proceeding.
