OF
CHRISTIAN YOUTH MISSIONS, INC.

ARTICLE I: NAME

The name of the corporation is Christian Youth Missions, Inc.

ARTICLE II: PRINCIPAL OFFICE

The principal place of business shall be located at 2751 S.E. 207th Court, Morriston, FL 32668 with a mailing address of the same address. The officers and shareholders may relocate the principal office from time to time as is necessary to meet the objectives of the corporation.

ARTICLE III: PURPOSE

The corporation is organized exclusively as a not for profit corporation pursuant to the Florida Statutes and section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code. The stated purpose of the corporation is to carry on community service activities both in the United States and neighboring countries as a nondenominational Christian ministry. The corporation was created to introduce youth to the missions field and to provide support to missionaries already in the field. In doing so the organizations goal is also to support children and families with feeding programs as well as medical and dental programs. The organization will also be involved in building community schools, medical facilities and in some cases residential housing projects. The organization may conduct such other charitable and lawful activities or acts allowed under the laws of the State of Florida, or any other state, country, territory or nation.

ARTICLE IV: EARNINGS

Said corporation is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, educational, and scientific purposes, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, trustees, officers, or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article three hereof. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf or in opposition to any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, this corporation shall not, except to an insubstantial degree, engage in any activities or exercise any powers that are not in furtherance of the purposes of this corporation.

ARTICLE V: DISSOLUTION PROCEDURES

The term of the corporation as established, is to be perpetual except as limited by the federal and state government or by resolution by the board of directors. Upon dissolution by action of law or by the board of directors, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by a Court of Competent Jurisdiction of the county in which the principal office of the corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

ARTICLE VI: OFFICERS AND DIRECTORS
