Ark Restoration Christian Church, Inc. Document Number N1000003849 Amended Article III --- Purpose

ARTICLE III – PURPOSE

The purpose for which the corporation is organized is:

This non-profit corporation is organized and operated exclusively for the religious purposes of a church within the meaning of the section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 as amended, of the United States of America. Upon dissolution of the corporation for any cause, none of the assets and property, both real and personal, then owned or controlled by the corporation shall be given to the benefit of any member, private individual or business entity. All of the assets and property, both real and personal then owned or controlled by this corporation shall revert to and become the property of a charitable organization according to tax-exempt status under Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended of the United States of America, to be designated by the Board of Trustees, provided however that the just debts and liabilities of the corporation shall first be paid.

The private property of the Trustees and members of the congregation shall be non-assessable and shall not be subject to payment of any corporate debts, nor shall the Trustee or members of the congregation become individually or corporately liable or responsible for any debts or liabilities of the corporation.

In furtherance of its non-profit tax exempt purposes, the corporation shall have the following powers and authority, however, the corporation shall not be empowered and is prohibited from engaging in political activities or any activity which is not allowed pursuant to Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended of the United States of America:

- (a) To operate under the name as set forth in ARTICLE I above.
- (b) To employ qualified counsel and other necessary personal to carry out the purposes of this corporation.
- (c) To adopt and use a corporate seal.
- (d) To earnestly seek and promote the unity of God's people and church's in a scriptural manner through godly love, respect and faithful voluntary cooperation with freedom and liberty. To that end it may associate and cooperate freely with other churches and missionary organizations and branches as a free and independent fellowship in accordance with its own conscience and the wisdom of God as the corporation perceives it to be. But in every case, and in every act and in pursuance of or adoption of any policy or method or in practice or association does and shall do so as a free church, always retaining its sovereignty and independence and in no case whatsoever as an act of subjection not precedent or amenability nor as an active or passive or implied affiliation not in any way as relinquishing its perpetual legal independence and sovereignty as a church.

- (e) To receive tithes, offerings and property by gift, devise or bequest subject to the laws relating to the transfer of property by gift or will.
- (f) To act as Trustee under any trust incidental to the principal objects of the corporation and to receive, hold, administer and expend funds and property subject to such trust.
- (g) To take, purchase or otherwise acquire to own, hold, occupy, use and enjoy, manage, improve, develop and work to grant, sell, exchange, let, demise and otherwise dispose of real estate therein without limit as to the amount thereof and where so ever the same may be situated, to erect, construct, alter and repair buildings, to assume any and every kind of contract, agreement and obligation by or with any person, firm, corporation, or association or any Federal, State or other government for the erection, construction, alteration, repair, renewal, equipment, improvement, development, use, enjoyment, leasing, management or control of any buildings, improvements or structures of any kind wherever the same may be situated.
- (h) To enter into, make, perform and carry out contracts of every kind for any lawful purpose without limit as to amount and with any person, firm, associates or corporation. To draw, make, accept, endorse, discount, issue and execute promissory notes, warrants and other negotiable or transferable interests.
- (i) To enter into, make, perform and carry out contracts of every kind for any lawful purpose without limit as to the amount thereof and where so ever the same may be situated.
- (j) To borrow and to loan money to give and to receive evidence of indebtness and security therefore, to draw, make, accept, endorse, execute and issue promissory notes, warrants and other debentures of the corporation, or otherwise to make guarantees of every kind and secure any or all obligations of the corporation by mortgage, trust deed or otherwise.
- (k) By its Board of Trustees to appoint such officers and employees as may be decreed proper, define their authority and duties, fix their compensation, require bonds of such of them as it deems advisable and fix the penalty thereof, dismiss such officers or employees or any thereof for any good reason and appoint others to fill their places.
- (1) To adopt By-laws regulating and providing for:
 - 1. Definite and distinct ecclesiastical government;
 - 2. A formal code of doctrine and discipline;
 - 3. Congregational membership;
 - 4. An organizational of ordained ministers ministering to the congregation;
 - 5. A system of ordaining ministers;
 - 6. Regular worship services;
 - 7. Schools and seminars for the instruction of children, teens and adults;
 - 8. Schools for the preparation of its ministers and Para-church to support pastors and leadership with workshops and retreats;
 - 9. Schools for Christian education of all grade levels and early childhood education through daycare;
 - 10. Outreach ministries to the community;

- (m) To minister sacerdotal functions;
- (n) To adopt and assume names in the furtherance of its nonprofit tax-exempt purposes;
- (o) To use any and all media, including but not limited to print, television and radio in the furtherance of its nonprofit tax exempt purposes;
- (p) To provide a local place for born again Christian believers to fellowship where God the Father, Jesus the Son of God and the Holy Spirit may be honored according to our full gospel testimony;
- (q) To assume our share of the responsibility and the privilege of propagating the Gospel of Jesus Christ;
- (r) To do all other acts necessary or expedient for the administration of the affairs and attainment of their purposes;
- (s) To exercise such other and incidental powers as may be reasonably necessary to carry out the purposes for which the corporation is established, provided that such incidental powers shall be exercised in a manner consistent with its tax-exempt status as a religious organization as set forth in Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 as amended of the United Sates of America.
- (t) The several clauses contained in this ARTICLE III shall be construed both as purposes and powers and the statements contained in each clause shall except where otherwise expressed, be in no wise limited or restricted by references to or inference from the terms of any other clauses, but shall be regarded as independent purposes and powers. Notwithstanding any provisions of these Articles of Incorporation, the corporation shall NOT engage in any political activity proscribed by Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended, of the United States of America, nor shall any income or assets of the corporation inure to the benefit of any member, private individual or business entity.
