ARTICLE III PURPOSE

Section 1

The purposes for which the corporation is organized are exclusively charitable, religious, educational, literary, and scientific purposes, including for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue law.

Section 2

Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, this organization shall not carry on any activities not permitted to be carried by an organization exempt from Federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue law.

Section 3

The Mission Statement:

To provide education, experience, and training in various cultural and performing arts, including music, drama, dance, and the vocal arts for the youth of Gifford, Florida (and neighboring Florida communities), with a core focus on mastering stringed instruments.

Section 4

The following objectives are designed to achieve the indicated purposes stated in Section 1 and 2 above:

- A. To provide some relief of the poor, the distressed, and the underprivileged children, youth, and families, primarily of Gifford, Florida, and similar communities by promoting and

The Gifford Florida Youth Orchestra, Incorporated Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation:

providing opportunities to become skilled in the liberal arts of music, drama, dance, and other forms of creative expression with a special focus on stringed instruments; and

B. To provide sufficient training and performance experiences such that they can be self employed as tutors, teachers, and performers while attending high school, college and other institutions of higher learning; and

C. To provide an opportunity for students of all ages to appreciate cultural enrichment of all cultures and religions; and

D. To provide programs and activities for youth to learn:

- (1) The importance of working together as a team;
- (2) The importance of performing individually and with a group;
- (3) Self discipline;
- (4) The value of obeying rules;
- (5) How to develop and encourage self esteem in self and others; and
- (6) How to redirect emotional issues toward positive results and character development.

E. To provide liberal arts scholarships to assist students in the program to help them attend college or a vocational/technical institution or assist them while they are in the Gifford Youth Orchestra program; and

F. To provide performing arts tutoring, mentoring, and classes to teach the children in the program of the fine art of playing an instrument in the orchestra; performing in dramatic presentations; speech; dance, story telling, vocal training and other forms of liberal arts; and

G. To provide supportive activities to enhance the above with special programs such as:

- (1) Special sports for hand eye coordination;
- (2) Martial arts and/or Movement Meditations for discipline;
- (3) Summer camps to further intensify their music education;
- (4) Health workshops to increase their awareness of healthy practices; and
- (5) Community service for the children, and

H. To provide opportunities for the students to perform in public and there increase their self esteem while helping to eliminate prejudice and discrimination; and combat community deterioration and juvenile delinquency, and

I. To support these programs in the Gifford Community by establishing at least five (maybe more) divisions of Gifford Youth Orchestra, Incorporated:

- (1) The Gifford Tennis Club;
- (2) The Gifford Community Newsletter;
- (3) The Gifford Speech and Drama Club; and
- (4) The Gifford School of Performing Arts;
- (5) The Parent's Association.

J. If we find we need to have more divisions to deliver our services to the youth, children and families of Gifford, Florida and neighboring communities, we will develop them as needed.
