Dear Mr. Jonassaint:

It has been brought to our attention that United Young Samaritans, Corp. has provided our office with incorrect or false information. Please be advised that it is a third degree felony to knowingly and willingly falsify or conceal a material fact or make any false, fictitious, or fraudulent statement in any matter within the jurisdiction of the Florida Department of State. According to our records, the Registered Agent address is the place of business for the Haitian Church of God and they did not agree or consent for you to use their address as the registered agent for United Young Samaritans, Corp., a Florida corporation incorporated on October 19, 2010.

Therefore, to correct this error on our records, you must designate a new registered office for the corporation. Failure to file a new registered agent and registered office change within 60 days will result in the administrative dissolution of the corporation on the records of this office.

Should you have any questions concerning this matter, please do not hesitate to contact me. My contact information is listed below.

Sincerely,

Karen D. Ellis

Hi Brenda,

I sent this email and a letter to United Young Samaritans regarding incorrect address for registered agent. There has been no response and no change to the address, so how do we proceed from here?

Thanks,
