Amendment of Article III - Purpose

The corporation is organized exclusively for charitable purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or corresponding provisions of any subsequent federal tax laws, including for such purposes:

A. To provide for the welfare, care, placement and adoption of Golden Retriever dogs and Golden Retriever mixes that have been abused, neglected or abandoned by their owners.

B. To promote public education that will help prevent abuse, neglect, and cruelty to all animals.

C. To acquire real, personal and intangible property by way of purchase, gift, lease donation or otherwise in order to carry out the purpose of this corporation.

(Amendment to Article III and additional Amendments continued on attachment)

Amendment to Article III (continued):

D. To receive, hold and distribute donations, bequests or other funds and do any and all things necessary or incidental thereto.

E. To do all things and engage in all lawful acts and activities under which a Not-for-Profit corporation may be formed and to do all things necessary and incidental to the purpose of this corporation under the Florida (Not for Profit) Corporation Law now in effect or may at any time be amended.

Amendment to Article IVThe manner to which directors are elected or appointed is:

The initial officers and directors shall be appointed by the President. The members of the Board of Directors shall be elected by a majority of the then-incumbent Directors and shall serve for terms of two years. The Board terms shall be staggered with no more than half the positions being open for election in any one fiscal year. After each member of the initial Board has served two years, the Board of Directors will begin the staggered terms process by choosing which positions will be open for election in the third year of the corporation's existence. The remaining Board positions will be up for election in the following years.

Addition of Article IXDissolution

Upon the dissolution or winding up of this Corporation, its assets remaining after payment, or provision for payment, of all debts and liabilities of the Corporation, shall be distributed to a not-for-profit fund, foundation, or corporation which is organized and operated exclusively for charitable purposes and which has established its tax exempt status under Section 501(c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or corresponding provisions of any subsequent federal tax laws.
