SECRETARY OF STATE
TALLAHASSEE, FLORIDA

THE UNDERSIGNED, as incorporator and on behalf of a not-for-profit, non-stock corporation under the laws of the State of Florida, hereby adopts the following Articles of Incorporation

ARTICLE I NAME

The name of the corporation is "Democracy at Stake, Inc.," (the "Corporation").

ARTICLE II
DURATION

The Corporation shall have perpetual existence unless dissolved pursuant to law.

ARTICLE III
NON-STOCK CORPORATION

The Corporation shall be organized (and shall be operated) on a non-stock basis under the Florida Not-for-Profit Corporation Act, and shall not have the power to issue shares of any type or class of stock, but may issue membership certificates if so provided in the Bylaws.

ARTICLE IV PURPOSES

1. The primary purposes for which the Corporation is organized are for the provision of research and education with a focus on the respective powers of the three branches of government in the State of Florida. Specific focus will be on the importance of balancing the rights and duties of the respective branches of government and the historical precedence behind our form of government.

2. Other purposes include:

- A. encouraging and facilitating the process of cooperative planning and action for research, surveys and assembling information relating to the inter-relationships between the branches of government;
- B. disseminating, through appropriate channels, the findings and recommendations derived from research, whether conducted by the Corporation or by others;

- C. supporting projects which are of national and statewide significance and interest; and
- D. seeking adequate funds from individuals, other foundations, corporations, government agencies and other organizations to finance projects of the Corporation which are consistent with the purposes.

Furthermore, the Corporation is organized for transacting any and all lawful business for which corporations may be incorporated under the Florida Not-for-profit Corporation Act and to distribute the whole or any part of the income therefrom and the principal thereof exclusively for charitable, religious, scientific, literary or educational purposes, either directly or by contributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and regulations issued pursuant thereto, as they now exist or as they may hereafter be amended.

3. The Corporation shall have the power, either directly or indirectly, either alone or in conjunction or cooperation with others, to do any and all lawful acts and things and to engage in any and all lawful activities which may be necessary, useful, suitable, desirable or proper for the furtherance, accomplishment, fostering or attainment of any or all of the purposes for which the Corporation is organized, and to aid or assist other organizations whose activities are such as to further accomplish, foster or attain any of such purposes. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the corporation shall exercise only such powers as are in furtherance of the exempt purposes of organizations set forth in Section 501 (c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and the regulations thereunder as the same now exist or as they may be hereinafter amended from time-to-time.

4. No part of the net earnings of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of , or be distributable to any director or officer of the Corporation or any other private individual (except that reasonable compensation may be paid for services rendered to or for the Corporation affecting one or more of its purposes); and no director or officer of the Corporation, or any private individual, shall be entitled to share in the distribution of any of the corporate assets upon the dissolution of the Corporation.

5. No substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation and the Corporation shall not participate or intervene in (including the publication or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office.

6. Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles of Incorporation, the Corporation shall not conduct or carry-on any activities not permitted to be conducted or carried on by an organization exempt from taxation under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and regulations issued pursuant thereto as they now exist or as they may hereafter be amended, or by an organization contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code and said regulations as they now exist or as they may hereafter be amended.

7. Upon the dissolution of the Corporation, the Board of Directors shall, after paying or making provision for the payment of all of the liabilities of the Corporation, dispose of all of the assets of the corporation, exclusively for the purposes of the Corporation in such manner, or to such organization or organizations organized and operated exclusively for charitable, educational, religious or scientific purposes, as shall at the time qualify as an exempt organization or organizations under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code (or the corresponding provisions of any future United States Internal Revenue law), as the Board of Directors shall determine. Any of such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by the court having proper jurisdiction in the county where the principal office of the Corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

8. The Corporation shall, as may be necessary, distribute its income for each taxable year at such time and in such manner as not to become subject to tax on undistributed income imposed by Section 4942 of the Internal Revenue Code or corresponding provisions of any subsequent federal tax laws.

9. The Corporation shall not engage in any act of self-dealing as defined in Section 4941(d) of the Internal Revenue Code or corresponding provisions of any subsequent federal tax laws.

10. The Corporation shall not retain any excess business holding as defined in Section 4943(c) of the Internal Revenue Code or corresponding provisions of any subsequent federal tax laws.

11. The Corporation shall not make any investments in such manner as to subject it to tax under Section 4944 of the Internal Revenue Code or corresponding provisions of any subsequent federal tax laws.

12. The Corporation shall not make any taxable expenditures as defined in Section 4945(d) of the Internal Revenue Code or corresponding provisions of any subsequent federal tax laws.

ARTICLE V

MEMBERS

This Corporation shall have a membership consisting of the Board of Directors of the Corporation serving from time-to-time. The Bylaws of the Corporation may provide for other classes of membership and describe the powers granted to each class.

ARTICLE VI

DIRECTORS

1. The affairs of the Corporation shall be governed by a Board of Directors (the "Board"), subject to the restriction that, except as specifically set forth to the contrary in the Bylaws, the exercise of any powers or actions of the Board shall require the approval thereof by a majority vote of the Board present at a meeting at which a quorum of no less than fifty percent (50%) of the directors is present. The affirmative vote of a majority of the total number of directors shall be necessary for the following corporate actions:

- A. Approval of charitable gifts, transfers, distributions and grants by the Corporation to other entities.
- B. Adoption of an amendment to the Articles of Incorporation or the Bylaws.
- C. Organization of a subsidiary or affiliate by the Corporation.
- D. Approval of any merger, consolidation or sale or other transfer of all or a substantial part of the assets of the Corporation.

2. Each Director other than ex-officio Directors will serve a two (2) year term following an election and said term shall continue until a successor shall have been duly elected and qualified. A director may be elected to succeed him or herself.

3. The Board of Directors shall be comprised of no fewer than three (3) directors. The number of directors and their manner of selection shall be prescribed in the Bylaws.
