ARTICLE VII – 501(C)(3) PROVISIONS

The corporation adopts the following provisions pursuant to section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code:

No part of the net earning of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of any member, trustee, director, or officer of the organization, or any private individual (except that reasonable compensation may be paid for services rendered to or for the organization), and no member, trustee, officer of the organization or any private individual shall be entitled to share in the distribution of any of the assets upon dissolution of the organization.

No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be carrying on propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation (except as otherwise provided by 501 (h) of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended), nor shall the corporation participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statement) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office.

Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the organization is organized exclusively for one or more of the following purposes: religious, charitable, scientific, literary, or educational purposes, or to foster national or international amateur sports competition (but only if no parts of its activities involve the provision of athletic facilities or equipment) or for the prevention of cruelty to children or animals, as specified in section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, and shall not carry on any activities not permitted to be carried on by an organization exempt from Federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) or corresponding provisions of any subsequent Federal tax laws.

This Corporation is not organized for pecuniary benefit or financial gain, and no part of its assets, income, or profit shall be distributed to, or inure to the benefit of its members, directors, officers except to the extent permitted under the Not-for-Profit Corporation Law.

In any taxable year in which the corporation is a private foundation as described in IRC S 509 (a), the corporation shall distribute its income for said period at such time and manner as not to subject it to tax under IRC S492, and the corporation shall not engage in any act of self-dealing as defined in IRC S4941(d), retain any excess business holdings as defined in IRC S4943(c), (b) make any investments in such manner as to subject the corporation to tax under IRC S4944, or (c) make any taxable expenditures as defined in IRC S4945 (d) or corresponding provisions of any subsequent Federal tax laws.

In the event of dissolution, all of the remaining assets and property of the corporation shall after payment of necessary expenses thereof be distributed to such organization as shall qualify under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 or corresponding provisions of any subsequent Federal tax laws, or to the federal government, or to a state or local government for a public purpose, or to another organization to be used in such manner as in the judgement of a Justice of the District Court of the State of Florida will best accomplish the general purposes for which this corporation was formed.
