ARTICLE III: Purposes

St. Lucie Emergency Communications Response Team, Inc. is organized and operated exclusively for the purposes of promoting and maintaining public safety and community well-being by providing emergency communications support and assistance to the community and to the government of St. Lucie County, as well as to other local governments as well as to non-profit charitable organizations during times of emergencies. The Corporation may accept charitable donations of cash, equipment or services.

The Corporation may, in pursuit of its organizational purposes, engage in, conduct, and support educational programs associated with public safety and communications support thereof. The Corporation also may participate in non-emergency community events that provide training and orientation to its member personnel and/or provide community exposure to the organization.

The activities of the Corporation shall be conducted in a manner consistent with the requirements for an exempt organization under section 501(c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

ARTICLE IV: Management of the Corporation

All aspects of The Corporation's operations and affairs will be governed by a Board of Directors. The incorporators listed below will serve as the initial Board of Directors of The Corporation and will adopt Bylaws for the Corporation. The initial Board of Directors will serve as directors until the end of the current fiscal year. Prior to the end of the current fiscal year, Directors for the following fiscal year will be selected, and their selection will be in accordance with the applicable provisions that will be stated in the Bylaws to be adopted by The Corporation. The normal operations of The Corporation will be supervised by an Executive Committee, which will be fully described in the Bylaws to be adopted by the Corporation. The fiscal year of The Corporation will begin on January 1 of each calendar year and will end on December 31 of each calendar year.

ARTICLE V: Membership

The St. Lucie Emergency Communications Response Team, Inc. will consist of licensed amateur radio operators who have voluntarily registered their qualifications and personal equipment for communications duty in the public service when disaster strikes. Every amateur radio operator licensed by the Federal Communications Commission is eligible for membership in the St. Lucie Emergency Communications Response Team, Inc., a Florida not-for-profit corporation. The only qualifications for membership, other than possession of an amateur radio license, are a sincere desire to serve and a willingness to comply with the Bylaws of The Corporation and to follow the policies, procedures and directions of the Executive Committee and the Board of Directors of the Corporation.

ARTICLE VI: Initial Registered Agent and Street Address

The name and Florida street address of the initial Registered Agent of The Corporation will be Stephen G. Lowman, who resides at 672 NE Owls Nest Court, Port Saint Lucie, Florida 34983.

ARTICLE VIII: Finances

The membership of The Corporation is comprised of volunteers. All directors, officers and others performing services for The Corporation or for any agencies that these persons may serve on behalf of or under the auspices of The Corporation shall serve without compensation. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the members of The Corporation may accept reimbursement for expenses incurred in carrying out the business of The Corporation. The Board of Directors and the Executive Committee are hereby authorized to contract for professional and administrative services or otherwise expend funds on behalf of The Corporation to carry out the business of The Corporation, as will be more fully stated in the Bylaws of The Corporation.

The Board of Directors, the Executive Committee and other officers of The Corporation are authorized to solicit contributions, apply for and consume grant funds, and to otherwise raise funds to finance the activities of The Corporation consistent with the organizational purposes and restrictions contained in preceding articles hereof and as follows herein: No part of the net earnings of The Corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributed to its members, officers, directors, or other private citizens, except that The Corporation shall be authorized to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in preceding articles hereof. No substantial part of the activities of The Corporation shall be the carrying on of propoganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and The Corporation shall not participate in or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on the behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, The Corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried out by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under section 501(C)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

ARTICLE IX: Dissolution and Distributions

The Corporation may be dissolved by a majority vote of members authorized to vote. Upon dissolution of The Corporation, assets shall be distributed according to one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of Section 501(C) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or shall be distributed to the federal government for a public purpose. Any assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by a Court of Competent Jurisdiction of the county in which the principal office of The Corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization(s) that are organized and operated for such purposes, as said court shall determine.

Having been named as registered agent and to accept service of process for the above stated corporation at the place designated in this certificate, I hereby accept the appointment as registered agent and agree to act in this capacity. I further agree to comply with the provisions of all statutes relating to the proper and complete performance of my duties, and am familiar with and accept the obligations of my position as registered agent.
