ARTICLE THREE Purpose

The Corporation is organized exclusively for cultural and educational purposes as defined in Section 501 (c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. These activities will include, but not be limited to, providing evangelistic outreach to the community of Labelle through monthly rodeo productions chiefly directed to the youth who participate in the events. The corporation is established as a permanent organization in Florida seeking to enrich the local community through activities promoting such purposes. The Corporation may engage in any activities that further its purposes.

Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles of Incorporation:

a. No part of the net earnings of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of any director of the Corporation, officer of the Corporation, or any private individual (except that reasonable compensation may be paid for services rendered to or for the Corporation affecting one or more of its purposes); and no director, officer or any private individual shall be entitled to share in the distribution of any of the corporate assets on dissolution of the Corporation. No substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the Corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publication or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office.

b. The corporation shall not conduct or carry on any activities not permitted to be conducted or carried on by an organization exempt from taxation under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and its Regulations as they now exist or as they may hereafter be amended, or by an organization, contributions to which are deductible under 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code and Regulations as they now exist or as they may hereafter be amended.

c. Upon dissolution of the Corporation or the winding up of its affairs, the assets of the Corporation shall be distributed exclusively to charitable organizations which would then qualify under the provisions of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and its Regulations as they now exist or as they may be hereafter amended.

ARTICLE EIGHT

Indemnification of Officers and Directors

The Corporation shall indemnify the directors and officers of the Corporation to the fullest extent permitted by the provisions of Chapter 617, F.S.(or the corresponding provision of any subsequent law). Such indemnification shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which such persons may be entitled, under any bylaws, agreements, vote of disinterested directors, or otherwise, both as to actions taken in the official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office, and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such persons. The Corporation shall have the power to enter into agreements providing for indemnification by the Corporation of current or former directors, officers, employees and agents or any other person from and against any and all expenses, liabilities or other matters. The board of directors of the Corporation may purchase, on behalf of the Corporation, such liability, indemnification and/or other similar insurance as the board of directors, in its sole discretion, shall determine is necessary or appropriate from time to time. Any amendment, modification, or repeal of this provision shall to prospective only, and shall not adversely affect any right or protection of any director or officer of the Corporation hereunder for or with respect to any acts or omissions of the director or officer occurring prior to such amendment, modification or repeal.

ARTICLE NINE
Limitation On Scope Of Liability

To the greatest extent permitted by applicable law in effect from time to time, a director of the Corporation shall not be liable to the Corporation for monetary damages for an act or omission in the director's capacity as a director of the Corporation, except and only to the extent that the director is found to be liable for:

- a. a breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the Corporation;
- b. An act or omission not in good faith by the director or an act or omission that involves the intentional misconduct or knowing violation of the law by the director;
- c. A transaction from which the director gained any improper personal benefit whether or not such benefit resulted from an action taken within the scope of the director's office; or
- d. An act or omission by the director for which liability is expressly provided for by statute.

If the applicable law, including Chapter 617,F.S., is hereafter amended to authorize the further elimination of limitation of the liability of a director, then the liability of a director of the Corporation shall be eliminated or limited to the fullest extent permitted by the applicable law as so amended. Any amendment, modification, or repeal of this provision shall be prospective only, and shall not adversely affect any right or protection of any director of the Corporation hereunder for or with respect to any acts or omissions of the director occurring prior to such amendment, modification or repeal.

ARTICLE TEN
Bylaws

The internal affairs of the Corporation shall be regulated by the Bylaws, and the Board of Directors shall supervise the management of the business and affairs of the Corporation in accordance with the Bylaws. The initial Bylaws shall be adopted by the initial Board of Directors named above in Article V. The power to amend or repeal the Bylaws shall be vested in the Board of Directors, except to the extent otherwise provided in the Bylaws.

Having been named as registered agent to accept service of process for the above stated corporation at the place designated in this certificate, I am familiar with and accept the appointment as registered agent and agree to act in this capacity
