the Code, or (ii) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Code or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

(d) In order to carry out only those general purposes heretofore set out, subject to the restrictions of Article 3, the Corporation shall have the following powers:

(i) to take and hold, by bequest, devise, gift, purchase or lease, either absolutely or in trust for such objects and purposes or any of them, any real, personal or mixed property, without limitation as to amount or value, except such limitations, if any, as may be imposed by law.

(ii) to sell, to convey, and to dispose of any such property and to invest and to reinvest the principal thereof, and to deal with and to expend the income therefrom for any of the aforementioned purposes, without limitation, except as may be imposed by law.

(iii) to receive, take title to, hold, and use the proceeds and income of stocks, bonds, obligations or other securities of any corporation or corporations, domestic or foreign, but only for some or all of the foregoing purposes.

(iv) to do all things necessary, expedient, or appropriate to the accomplishment of any of the objects and purposes for which this Corporation is formed.

Notwithstanding any of the above statements of purposes and powers, this Corporation shall not engage in activities which in themselves are not permitted to be conducted or carried on by an organization exempt under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code or by an organization, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Code.

ARTICLE IX: MEMBERS

The Corporation shall have members if and as determined by the Board and set forth in the bylaws of the Corporation.

ARTICLE X: DISSOLUTION

Upon the dissolution of the Corporation, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by a court of competent jurisdiction of the county in which the principal office of the Corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.
