All of the assets and earnings of the Corporation shall be used exclusively for the exempt purposes hereinabove set forth, including the payment of expenses incidental thereto. No part of the net earnings shall inure to the benefit of or be distributable to its members, trustees, officers or any other private persons, except that the Corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make distributions and payments in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article II hereof. No substantial part of the Corporation's activity shall be for the carrying on of a program of propaganda or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the Corporation shall not participate in or interfere with (including the publication or distribution of statements regarding) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles, the Corporation shall not carry on any activities not permitted to be carried on by an organization exempt from federal income taxation under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code (or corresponding provisions of any subsequent Revenue Laws), or any organization, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Code (or corresponding provisions of any subsequent Revenue Laws). The Corporation shall have no capital stock, pay no dividends, distribute no part of its net income or assets to any members, Directors or officers, and the private property of the subscribers, members, Directors and officers shall not be liable for the debts of the Corporation.

In particular, but without limitation of the generality of the foregoing paragraph, during such time as the Corporation may be considered a private foundation as defined in Section 509(a) of the Code (or corresponding provisions of any subsequent Revenue Laws) it shall not:

- (i) fail to distribute its income for each taxable year at such time and in such manner as not to become subject to the tax on undistributed income imposed by Section 4942 of the Code (or corresponding provisions of any subsequent Revenue Laws);
- (ii) engage in any act of self-dealing as defined in Section 4941(d) of the Code (or corresponding provisions of any subsequent Revenue Laws);
- (iii) retain any excess business holdings as defined in Section 4943(c) of the Code (or corresponding provisions of any subsequent Revenue Laws);
- (iv) make any investment in such manner as to subject it to tax under Section 4944 of the Code (or corresponding provisions of any subsequent Revenue Laws); or
- (v) make any taxable expenditures as defined in Section 4945(d) of the Code (or corresponding provisions of any subsequent Revenue Laws).

ARTICLE XII INDEMNIFICATION

Each person who is or was a Director, trustee, officer or employee of the Corporation, whether elected or appointed, including the heirs, executors, administrators or estate of any person, shall be indemnified by the Corporation to the full amount against any liability, and the reasonable cost, or expense (including attorneys' fees, monetary or other judgments, fines, excise taxes or penalties and amounts paid or to be paid in settlement) incurred by such person in such person's capacity as a Director, trustee, officer, or employee; provided, however, that no such person shall be indemnified against any such liability, cost or expense, incurred in connection with any action, suit or proceeding in which such person shall have been adjudged liable on the basis that personal benefit was improperly received by such person, or if such indemnification would be prohibited by law. Such right of indemnification shall be a contract right and shall include the right to be paid by the Corporation the reasonable expenses incurred in defending any threatened or pending action, suit or proceeding in advance of its final disposition; provided, however, that such advance payment of expenses shall be made only after delivery to the Corporation of an undertaking by or on behalf of such person to repay all amounts so advanced if it shall be determined that such person is not entitled to such indemnification. Any repeal or modification of this Article XII shall not affect any rights or obligations then existing. If any indemnification payment required by this Article XII is not paid by the Corporation within ninety (90) days after a written claim has been received by the Corporation, the Director, trustee, officer or employee may at any time thereafter bring suit against the Corporation to recover the unpaid amount and, if successful in whole or in part, such person shall also be entitled to be paid the expense of prosecuting such claim. The Corporation may maintain insurance, at its own expense, to protect itself and any such person against any such liability, cost or expense, whether or not the Corporation would have the power to indemnify such person against such liability, cost or expense, under the Florida Not For Profit Corporation Act, or under this Article XII, but it shall not be obligated to do so. The indemnification provided by this Article XII shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights which those seeking indemnification may have or hereafter acquire under any Bylaw, agreement, statute, vote of the Board of Directors or otherwise. If this Article XII or any portion thereof shall be invalidated on any ground by any court of competent jurisdiction, then the Corporation nevertheless shall indemnify each such person, to the full extent permitted by any applicable portion of this Article XII that shall not have been invalidated or that remains enforceable under any other applicable law.

ARTICLE XIII LIMITATION OF DIRECTOR LIABILITY

No Director shall be personally liable to the Corporation for monetary damages for breach of his or her duties as a Director except for liability:

- a) For any transaction in which the Director's personal financial interest is in conflict with the financial interests of the Corporation;
- b) For acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or are known to the Director to be a violation of law; or
- c) For any transaction from which the Director derives an improper personal benefit.

If the Florida Not For Profit Corporation Act is amended after approval of these Articles of Incorporation to authorize corporate action further eliminating or limiting the personal liability of Directors, then the liability of a Director of the Corporation shall be deemed to be eliminated or limited by this provision to the fullest extent then permitted by the Florida Not For Profit Corporation Act, as so amended. Any repeal or modification of this Article XIII shall not adversely affect any right or protection of a Director of the Corporation existing at the time of such repeal or modification.

ARTICLE XIV Dissolution

Upon dissolution of the Corporation, all of its assets remaining after payment of or provision for all liabilities of the Corporation, including costs and expenses of such dissolution, shall be utilized exclusively for the exempt purposes of the Corporation or distributed to an organization described in Section 501(c)(3) or 170(c)(2) of the Code (or corresponding provisions of any subsequent Revenue Laws) as shall be selected by the last Board of Directors of the Corporation. None of the assets will be distributed to any member, officer or Director of this Corporation. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by the circuit court of the county in which the principal office of the Corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations as said court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.
