Article VIII

The Corporation shall have all of the powers conferred upon corporations organized pursuant to the provision of Chapter 617, Florida Statutes, as amended and supplemented.

Notwithstanding any provision contained in these articles, the corporation is required to distribute its income for each taxable year at the times and in the manner as not to subject the corporation tax under section 4942 of the Internal Revenue code. In addition, the Corporation shall not, during any period and to the extent it is a private foundation described in section 509 of the Internal Revenue Code, (a) engage in any act of self-dealing; (b) retain any excess business holdings; (c) make any investments in a manner as to subject the corporation to tax under section 4944 of the Internal Revenue Code, or (d) make any taxable expenditure as defined in section 4945 (d) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Article IX

The corporation shall be perpetual. Upon the dissolution of this nonprofit corporation assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue code or corresponding section of any future Federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the Federal government or to a state or local government for a public purpose. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by a court of competent jurisdiction of the county in which the principal office of the corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organizations as the court shall determine.

There are no members or members entitled to vote on the amendments. The amendments were unanimously adopted by the board of directors. All amendments were adopted and effective in accordance with the signing date below.
