ARTICLE III

Purposes

- A. The Corporation is organized exclusively for charitable purposes within the parameters and meaning described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue law), including, but not limited to, for such purposes of providing affordable housing, healthcare, food, employment training, educational resources, for extremely low, very low, low and/or moderate income persons and families; neighborhood revitalization; establishing sustainable economic initiatives; developing strategies and programs for job creation within the community; entrepreneurial initiatives; small business creation and/or expansion and training for jobs that offer or promote upward mobility; and engaging in any other legal activity including, but not limited to, any such legal activity not prohibited to corporations under the Florida Not-For-Profit Corporation Act that is in furtherance of federal tax-exempt charitable purposes.
- B. No part of the net earnings of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to any of its members, trustees, officers, or other private persons, except that the Corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services actually rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of its exempt purposes. No substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall consist of the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise, attempting to influence legislation, and the Corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the Corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (1) by a corporation exempt from Federal income taxation under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or the corresponding section of any future United States Internal Revenue law, or (2) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or the corresponding section of any future United States internal revenue law.
- C. The Corporation shall have perpetual existence unless sooner dissolved by law or in accordance with the By-Laws of the Corporation. Upon the winding up and dissolution of the Corporation, after paying or adequately providing for the debts and obligations of the Corporation, all of the remaining assets of the corporation shall be distributed only to one or more organizations created and operated for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of Article III A hereof, other than for religious purposes, all of the foregoing within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or the corresponding section of any future United States internal revenue law, exclusively for a public purpose. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by a court of competent jurisdiction of the county in which the principal office of the corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.
