ARTICLE VIII.

No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, trustees, officers, or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article Three hereof. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

ARTICLE IX.

The corporation shall indemnify any officer or director of the corporation, current or former, against all expenses or liabilities reasonably incurred by such director or officer on behalf of the corporation. This right of indemnification shall apply regardless of whether the director or officer was a director or officer at the time the expenses or liabilities were incurred. This includes any settlement of such debt or liability, except in the event that the director or officer is adjudicated guilty of malfeasance in the performance of his duties as a director or officer. In the event of a settlement, the indemnification herein shall apply only to such settlements approved by the Board of Directors as being in the best interests of the corporation. This right of indemnification shall be in addition to, not exclusive, of all other rights to which the director or officer may be entitled.

ARTICLE X.

Amendments to the Articles of Incorporation or the Bylaws of SCSEA may be proposed by any member of the Board of Directors and shall be adopted by a vote of two-thirds (2/3) of the Board of Directors present at any meeting, provided that a quorum is present. A copy of the proposed amendment(s) shall be provided to each member of the Board of Directors at least one (1) week prior to the meeting at which the amendment is to be discussed.

ARTICLE XI.

Upon the dissolution of the corporation, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by a Court of Competent Jurisdiction of the county in which the principal office of the corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.
