Articles of Incorporation

Article I: Name

The new name of the corporation Not for Profit shall be the THRESHOLD SCHOOL, INC. (hereinafter referred to as the "Corporation").

Article II: Duration

The Corporation shall have perpetual existence.

Article III: Purposes and Powers

3.1 A. Nonprofit Corporation. The Corporation is not organized for profit; it shall have no capital stock and shall not be authorized to issue capital stock.

B. Purposes. The Corporation is organized and shall be operated exclusively for charitable, religious, educational, scientific, testing for public safety, fostering national or international amateur sports competition, and preventing cruelty to children or animals, including, but not limited to, for such purposes the making of distributions to organizations that qualify under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code (the "Code") or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

C. To carry on such other activities that are in furtherance of and in support of the foregoing purposes as are lawful and proper for corporations formed under the Florida Not for Profit Corporation Act and Section 501(c)(3) of the Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code

3.2 Subject only to such limitations as now or hereafter are prescribed by law or in the Corporation's Articles of Incorporation, the powers of the Corporation shall be as provided in the bylaws of the Corporation in accordance with Chapter 617, Florida Statutes. The Corporation shall have all powers which now or hereafter are conferred by law upon a corporation organized for the purposes previously stated in this Article III or are necessary or incidental to the powers so conferred.

Article IV: Limitations

4.1 No part of the net earnings of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, its directors, officers, or other private persons, except that the Corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article III hereof. No substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles of incorporation, the Corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from the federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c)(2) of the Code.

4.2 As used in this paragraph 4.2 references to "section(s)", unless otherwise indicated, refer to sections of the Code. The Corporation, during any period it is a "private foundation" as defined in section 509(a) of the Code, may not:

A. Engage in any act of "self-dealing," as defined in section 4941(d), which would give rise to any liability for the tax imposed by section 4941(a);

B. Retain any "excess business holdings," as defined in section 4943(c), which would give rise to any liability for the tax imposed by section 4943(a);

C. Make any investment which would jeopardize the carrying out of any of its exempt purposes, within the meaning of section 4944, so as to give rise to any liability for the tax imposed by section 4944(a); and

D. Make any "taxable expenditures," as defined in section 4945(d), which would give rise to any liability for the tax imposed by section 4945(a).

4.3 The Corporation, during the period it is a "private foundation" as defined in section 509 of the Code, shall distribute, for the purposes specified in its articles of incorporation, for each taxable year, amounts at least sufficient to avoid liability for the tax imposed by section 4942(a) of the Code.

4.4 Upon the dissolution of the Corporation, its assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by a Court of Competent Jurisdiction of the county in which the principal office of the Corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.
