The undersigned, MARIA EVA BORG, desiring to form a charitable corporation under and by virtue of the provisions of Chapter 617 of the Florida Statutes, hereby makes, subscribes, and files these Articles for that purpose, as follows:

ARTICLE I

Name

The name of this corporation shall be the BORG FAMILY CHARITABLE FOUNDATION, INC.

ARTICLE II

Principal Place of Business and Mailing Address

The principal place of business and the mailing address of the corporation shall be 307 Old Jupiter Beach Road, Jupiter, Florida 33477.

ARTICLE III

Purposes and Powers

The corporation shall not provide for pecuniary gain or profit to its members. The principal purpose for which it is formed is to make periodic grants to public charitable organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under Section 501(c)(3) of the United States Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or the corresponding provision of any future law of the Internal Revenue Service or Department of Treasury).

The corporation shall have the power to acquire by gift, devise, bequest, purchase, lease or otherwise, and to hold, own, occupy, use, manage, improve, develop, maintain, lease, sell, mortgage, transfer, invest in or reinvest in, or otherwise deal with any real or personal property (tangible or intangible) of whatever kind and description and wherever situated, or with any estate or interest, legal or equitable, in the property, to borrow money and to make, accept, endorse, execute and issue promissory notes and other obligations in payment for property acquired or money borrowed; and to do all such other acts as are necessary or convenient to carry out the purposes set forth in these Articles.

Final control of and responsibility for the receipt, management and distribution of all funds by the corporation shall rest with the Board which shall, among other duties, insure that the corporation shall not be subject to tax under Sections 4942, 4943, 4944 and any other similar provisions of the Internal Revenue Code.

No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be attempting to influence legislation by propaganda or otherwise, except that the corporation may make the election provided for in Section 501(h) of the United States Internal Revenue Code (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue law) with respect to influencing legislation, and, only if it so elects, may make lobbying or grassroots expenditures that do not normally exceed the ceiling amounts prescribed by Section 501(h)(2)(B) and (D) of the United States Internal Revenue Code (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue law).

Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on:

by a corporation exempt from Federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the United States Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law), or by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the United States Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law); or by a corporation formed pursuant to Chapter 617, Florida Statutes, with particular reference to Florida Statutes 617.0105 dealing with the prohibited activities of private foundations.

ARTICLE IV

Manner in which Directors are Elected

Those directors set forth below at Article V, and all subsequently elected directors, shall by majority vote elect or appoint additional or successor directors from time to time.

ARTICLE V

Names and Addresses of Directors/Officers

The number of Directors of the corporation shall not be less than three (3), or the minimum number required by law, nor more than seven (7).
