SECRETARY OF STATE
DIVISION OF CORPORATIONS

Any provision of these Articles of Incorporation or the Bylaws of the Corporation to the contrary notwithstanding, the Corporation and its Board of Directors ("Board") shall not:

- (A) Engage in any act of self-dealing as defined in section 4941(d) of the Code;
- (B) Distribute income and principal of the Corporation at such times and in such manner so as to subject the Corporation to the tax imposed by section 4942 of the Code;
- (C) Retain any excess business holdings as defined in section 4943 of the Code;
- (D) Make any investments in a manner that subjects the Corporation to the tax imposed by section 4944 of the Code; and
- (E) Make any taxable expenditures as defined in section 4945(d) of the Code.

No part of the net earnings of the Corporation shall inure or be payable to or for the benefit of any private member, or individual, and no substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda or otherwise attempting to influence legislation. No part of the activities of the Corporation shall be the participation in, or intervention in (including, but not limited to, the publishing or distribution of statements), any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office.

With respect to any distribution of the Corporation to another charitable organization or termination of the Corporation, the Board shall distribute the assets of the Corporation, and any net income thereon, to one or more organizations organized and operated exclusively for charitable or educational purposes which shall at the time of such distribution qualify as exempt organizations under section 501(c)(3) of the Code; provided, however, that no distribution shall be made to any organization that would (a) impair or destroy the tax exempt status of the Corporation, (b) impair or destroy the deductibility for federal income, gift or estate tax purposes of any contributions theretofore made to the Corporation, or (c) subject any contribution theretofore made to the Corporation to federal gift or estate taxes.

It is intended that the Corporation shall at all times comply with applicable law and shall be exempt, to the extent permitted by law, from federal income and estate taxes and that contributions to the Corporation, to the extent permitted by law, shall be deductible for federal income, gift and estate tax purposes and shall not be subject to federal gift or estate taxes. To that end, the provisions of these Articles of Incorporation may be amended by the Board at any time or times in order to comply with the applicable law and to secure and assure initial and continued approval of the Corporation as a private foundation by the Treasury Department, Internal Revenue Service, and/or any other bureau, department, agency or office of the United States government, and any such amendment so made shall take effect retroactively to the extent so required. The Board is expressly authorized to make, alter or repeal the Bylaws of the Corporation; provided, however, that no amendment or change in the charitable purpose and restrictions set forth in this Article shall be made except as provided in this Article.

In furtherance thereof, the Corporation may receive property by gift, devise or bequest, and apply the income and principal thereof, as the Board may from time to time determine, either directly or through contributions to any charitable organization or organizations, exclusively for religious, charitable, scientific, literary or educational purposes, and engage in any lawful activity for which not-for-profit's corporations may be organized under Florida law.

In furtherance of its corporate purpose, the Corporation shall have all the general powers enumerated in Chapter 617 of the Florida Statutes, as may hereafter be amended, together with the power to solicit grants and contributions for such purposes.

ARTICLE III LIMITATIONS

A. No part of the net earnings of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to any director or officer of the Corporation, or any other private person, except that the Corporation shall be authorized and empowered to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in this Certificate of Incorporation, and reasonable reimbursements and compensation may be paid for services rendered to or for the Corporation affecting its purposes.

B. No substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall be the carrying on of any propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation as defined in Section 4945 of the Code and the Corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements concerning) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office.

C. During such period, or periods, of time as the Corporation is treated as a "private foundation" pursuant to Section 509 of the Code, the directors must distribute the Corporation's income at such time and in such manner so as not to subject the Corporation to tax on undistributed income imposed by Section 4942 of the code, and the Corporation is prohibited from engaging in any act of self-dealing (as defined in Section 4941(d) of the Code), from retaining any excess business holdings (as defined in Section 4943 (c) of the Code) which would subject the Corporation to tax under Section 4943 of the Code, from making any investments or

D. Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles of Incorporation, the corporation shall not directly or indirectly carry on any activity which would prevent it from obtaining exemption from Federal income taxation as a corporation described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Code, or cause it to lose such exempt status, carry on any activity not permitted to be carried on by a not-for-profit corporation, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Code, or carry on any activity not permitted to be carried on by a non-for-profit corporation organized under the laws of the State of Florida pursuant to the provisions of Florida law.
