ARTICLE III – PURPOSES

The purposes for which the Corporation is organized are to promote charitable, literary, and educational activities within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, including, but not limited to the provision of literacy resources, education, and programs which empower individuals and build community through the acquisition and enhancement of literacy skills.

The Corporation is not organized for profit, and no part of the net earnings of this Corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributed to, its members, trustees, officers, directors or other private persons or any other individuals, except that this Corporation may make payments of reasonable compensation for services rendered, and payments for expenses incurred in the furtherance of its purposes, as stated in these Articles of Incorporation. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the Corporation shall not participate or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of, or in opposition to, any candidate for public office. The Corporation shall never be operated for the primary purpose of carrying on a trade or business for profit.

Notwithstanding any provision of these Articles of Incorporation, the Corporation shall not carry on any activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by an organization exempt from federal taxes as described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 or provisions of any future Federal tax code, or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.
