ARTICLE III
DURATION

The corporation is organized pursuant to the provisions of the Florida Not for Profit Corporations Act. The period of the corporation is perpetual, unless dissolved according to law. Corporate existence shall commence upon the filing of these articles of incorporation.

ARTICLE IV
CORPORATE PURPOSES

The corporation is organized and operated exclusively for religious, charitable and educational purposes and activities within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or the corresponding provision of any future United States internal revenue law ("Code"). Such purposes shall include the following:

- a. serving as an outreach for the community by collecting, storing and distributing food, clothing and other basic necessities to individuals and families who are experiencing economic difficulties or on an emergency basis as a result of a natural disaster;
- b. developing and providing provisional and transitional homes in the community to serve the needs of individuals and families who are experiencing a gap in their housing, temporary or unanticipated financial hardship or have been displaced because of an abusive situation or as a result of a natural disaster;
- c. providing resources that assist and rehabilitate individuals, enabling individuals and their families to reconstruct their lives spiritually, physically, emotionally and mentally in a healthy living environment;
- d. promoting, encouraging, developing and fostering religious values and activities, family values, educational, social activities, community service, cultural growth and business opportunities for charitable classes of persons;
- e. soliciting funds, grants and gifts-in-kind to accomplish the aforesaid purposes, and engaging in relationships with and supporting other related or independent charities, humanitarian organizations and appropriate non-governmental organizations to further such purposes and activities; and

- f. performing all other acts necessary or expedient for the administration of the affairs and attainment of the purposes of the corporation.

ARTICLE V POWERS

The corporation shall have, but not be limited to, all the powers conferred upon nonprofit corporations as set forth in section 617.0302, Florida Statutes, as amended from time to time, which are hereby incorporated herein by this reference. However, notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (1) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code, or (2) by a corporation contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Code.

ARTICLE VI PROHIBITED ACTIVITIES

No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of or be distributable to its members, directors, officers or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered to it and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth above. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall consist of carrying on propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate or intervene in any political campaign (including the publishing or distribution of statements) on behalf of, or in opposition to, any candidate for public office. The corporation shall not operate for the purpose of carrying on a trade or business for profit; accumulate income, invest income, or divert income, in a manner endangering its exempt status; or except to an insubstantial degree, engage in any activity or exercise any powers that are not in furtherance of the purposes of the corporation.

ARTICLE VII MEMBERS

The corporation shall not have members and is governed exclusively by or under the authority of its board of directors.

ARTICLE VIII MANAGEMENT OF CORPORATE AFFAIRS

The powers and business affairs of the corporation shall be exercised and managed by or under the authority of the corporation's board of directors. The number of directors may be increased or decreased from time to time as provided for in the corporation's bylaws, but at no time shall there be fewer than three (3) directors of the corporation.
