Article 14-Effective Date

These articles of Incorporation shall be effective immediately upon approval of the Secretary of State, State of Florida.

Article 15- Amendments

These Articles of Incorporation may be amended in the manner provided by law. Every amendment shall be approved by the Officers, proposed by them to the Members, and approved at a Members meeting by a majority of the Members, unless all the Officers and all the Members sign a written statement manifesting their intention that a certain amendment of these Articles of Incorporation be made.

Article 16- Indemnification

The Corporation shall indemnify an officer of the Corporation who was wholly successful, on the merits or otherwise, in the defense of any proceeding to which the officer was a party because the officer is or was an officer of the Corporation against reasonable attorney fees and expenses incurred by the officer in connection with the proceeding. The Corporation may indemnify an individual made a party to a proceeding because the individual is or was an officer, employee or agent of the Corporation against liability if authorized in the specific case after determination, in the manner required by the Officers, that indemnification of the officer, employee or agent, as the case may be, is permissible in the circumstances because the officer, employee or agent has met the standard of conduct set forth by the Officers. The indemnification and advancement of attorney fees and expenses for officers, employees and agents of this Corporation shall apply when such persons are serving at the Corporation's request while an officer, employee or agent of the Corporation, as the case may be, as an officer, partner, trustee, employee or agent of another foreign or domestic Corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise, whether or not for profit, as well as in their official capacity with the Corporation. The Corporation also may pay for or reimburse the reasonable attorney fees and expenses incurred by an officer, employee or agent of the Corporation who is a party to a proceeding in advance of final disposition of the proceeding. The Corporation also may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of an individual arising from the individual's status as an officer, employee or agent of the Corporation, whether or not the Corporation would have power to indemnify the individual against the same liability under the law. All references in these Articles of Incorporation are deemed to include any amendment or successor thereto. Nothing contained in these Articles of Incorporation shall limit or preclude the exercise of any right relating to indemnification or advance of attorney fees and expenses to any person who is or was an officer, employee, or agent of the Corporation or the ability of the Corporation otherwise to indemnify or advance expenses to any such person by contract or in any other manner. If any word, clause or sentence of the foregoing provisions regarding indemnification or advancement of the attorney fees or expenses shall be held invalid as contrary to law or public policy, it shall be severable and the provisions remaining shall not be otherwise effected. All references in these Articles of Incorporation to "officer", "employee" and "agent" shall include the heirs, estates, executors, administrators and personal representatives of such persons.

Article 17-Dissolution

Upon dissolution of the Corporation, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government for public purpose. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by Court of Competent Jurisdiction of the county in which the principle office of the Corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

Having been named as registered agent to accept service of process for the above stated corporation at the place designated in the certificate, I am familiar with and accept the appointment as registered agent and agree to act in this capacity.
