ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION
OF
COMMUNITY BAIL FUND, INC.
(a Florida Not For Profit Corporation)

Article I. Name

The name of the corporation shall be COMMUNITY BAIL FUND, INC. (the "Corporation").

Article II. Purposes

The Corporation is organized exclusively to engage in all lawful acts or activities not for pecuniary profit for which Florida not for profit corporations may be organized, so far as permitted by Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or to corresponding provisions of future federal tax legislation (the "Code"), and only for charitable, religious, and educational purposes that are in accordance with all applicable laws. Specifically, the Corporation is organized to establish for, charitable, educational, therapeutic, and scientific purposes, including, providing financial assistance to persons charged with crimes in the State of Florida who are unable to afford the money bond associated with the bail determination process through the operation of a revolving bail fund funded through donations or fundraising campaigns. The Corporation will also engage in local and national advocacy efforts to eliminate the use of the money bond as part of the bail determination process and end pretrial incarceration.

The Corporation shall be organized strictly for charitable and educational purposes as set forth in Code Section 501(c)(3) and Code Section 170. This Corporation is organized to serve the public interest and in no event shall this Corporation be operated for the benefit of private interests. The Corporation shall not be organized or operated for the primary purpose of carrying on or operating a business of a kind regularly carried on for profit.

The Corporation may also hold, invest, reinvest, use, expend, disburse and administer any gifts and grants, without limitations as to origin, amount or value, and to use, expend, disburse or donate the income or principal thereof for charitable purposes consistent with the Corporation's purposes as set forth herein. The Corporation may establish investment policies and guidelines in its bylaws or through Board of Directors' action.

To further support the Corporation's purposes, the Corporation shall also have the incidental powers to do all things necessary, suitable, or proper for the accomplishment or furtherance of, or to do such other act or thing incidental to, growing out of, or connected with, the purposes or powers set forth in these Articles of Incorporation, whether alone or in association with others, to possess all the rights, powers, and privileges now or hereafter conferred by law upon a not for profit corporation organized under Chapter 617, Florida Statutes; provided, however, that nothing herein shall be construed as authorizing the Corporation to possess any purpose, object, or power, or to do any act or thing forbidden by these Articles of Incorporation or forbidden by law to a not for profit corporation organized under the laws of the State of Florida or prohibited under Code Section 501(c)(3) or Code Section 170.
