AMENDED AND RESTATED ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION TO ST. MARY TOWERS, INC.
(a nonprofit corporation)

The following Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation of St. Mary Towers, Inc., a Florida nonprofit corporation (the "Corporation"), have been duly adopted by the members by unanimous vote on September 8, 2006 wherein a quorum of members were present and such is sufficient without further action for approval pursuant to the authority of Section 617.1002 of the Florida Statutes and the provisions of the existing Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws of the Corporation:

ARTICLE I
NAME AND REGISTERED AGENT

- A. The name of the Corporation is ST. MARY TOWERS, INC., a Florida nonprofit corporation.
- B. The principal office of the Corporation is located at 11410 North Kendall Drive, Suite 201, Miami, FL 33176.
- C. The resident agent of the Corporation is J. Patrick Fitzgerald, Esquire, whose post office address is J. Patrick Fitzgerald, P.A., 110 Merrick Way, Suite 3-B, Coral Gables, Florida 33134.

ARTICLE II PURPOSE

The purposes for which the Corporation is formed, and the business and objects to be carried on and promoted by it, are as follows:

1. The Corporation is organized exclusively for charitable and/or educational purposes, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations which qualify as exempt organizations under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or the corresponding section of any future United States internal revenue law. In pursuance of the foregoing purposes, the Corporation shall have the power to provide elderly persons and handicapped persons with housing facilities and services specially designed to meet their physical, social, and psychological needs, and to promote their health, security, happiness, and usefulness in longer living, the charges for such facilities and services to be predicated upon the provision, maintenance, and operation thereof on a nonprofit basis.
2. No part of the net earnings of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, directors, officers, or other private persons, except that the Corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services actually rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of its exempt purposes. No substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall consist of the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the Corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the Corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from Federal income taxation under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or the corresponding section of any future United States internal revenue law, or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or the corresponding section of any future United States internal revenue law.

ARTICLE III POWERS

The Corporation is empowered:

1. To buy, own, sell, assign, mortgage, or lease any interest in real estate and personal property and to construct, maintain, and operate improvements thereon necessary or incident to the accomplishment of the purposes set forth in Article II hereof.
2. To borrow money and issue evidence of indebtedness in furtherance of any or all of the objects of its business, and to secure the same by mortgage, pledge, or other lien on the Corporation's property.
3. To do and perform all acts reasonably necessary to accomplish the purposes of the Corporation.
4. Upon the dissolution of the Corporation, all of the remaining assets of the Corporation shall be distributed only to one or more organizations created and operated for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of Article II, Section 1, hereof, other than for religious purposes, all of the foregoing within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or the corresponding section of any future United States internal revenue law. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by a court of competent jurisdiction of the county in which the principal office of the Corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said court shall determine which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

ARTICLE IV BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The number of directors of the Corporation shall be no less than seven (7) nor more than fifteen (15) and shall be elected by the members of the Corporation from the membership. Only members of the Corporation may sit as directors.

The directors shall serve without compensation.

Membership in the Corporation shall, at all times, be limited to individuals who subscribe to the purposes of the Corporation as contained herein and are approved by the Archbishop of the Archdiocese of Miami, or his successor in office. In the event he or his successor in office withdraw said approval, then such withdrawal of approval shall be construed as resignation as a member and director of the Corporation.

ARTICLE V OFFICERS

The officers of the Corporation, as provided by the Bylaws of the Corporation, shall be elected by the directors of the Corporation, in the manner therein set out, and shall serve until their successors are elected and have qualified. The directors shall elect the regular officers of the Corporation at the annual meeting, for terms of one (1) year. The secretary and treasurer may be one and the same person.

ARTICLE VI MEETINGS

The annual meeting of the board of directors shall be held in accordance with the Bylaws.

ARTICLE VII BYLAWS

Bylaws of the Corporation may be adopted by the directors at any regular meeting or any special meeting called for that purpose, so long as they are not inconsistent with the provisions of these Articles.

ARTICLE VIII AMENDMENT

These Articles of Incorporation may be amended by a majority vote of the membership at any regular meeting, or any special meeting called for that purpose, after first giving at least ten (10) days notice to the membership, subject to the provisions of Article VII and Article IX.

ARTICLE IX HUD-REQUIRED PROVISIONS
