(attach additional sheets, if necessary). (Be specific)

Article III (As Amended) The Corporation is organized and shall be operated exclusively for charitable, religious, scientific and educational purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (The Code).

The Corporation's purposes are to relieve poverty, distress, suffering and inequality by providing assistance to individuals or communities anywhere in the world. In furtherance of such purposes, the Corporation shall raise and grant funds to support programs and projects in such a manner as in the judgement of the Directors of the Corporation shall best further the Corporation's purposes. The Corporation may engage in any and all other charitable activities permitted to an organization exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code or corresponding future provisions of the federal tax law. To these ends, the Corporation may do an engage in any and all lawful activities that may be incidental or reasonably necessary to any of these purposes and it shall have and may exercise all other powers and authority now or hereafter conferred upon nonprofit corporations in the State of Florida, including, but not limited to, the power to accept donations of money or property, whether real or personal, or any interest therein, wherever situated. The Corporation shall not carry on activity not permitted to be carried on by a corporation exempt from federal income taxes under The Code. The Corporation shall not participate or intervene in any political campaign or attempt to influence legislation.

Article IV (As Amended) The Affairs of the Corporation are to be managed by a Board of Directors and all matters regarding the election or appointment of Directors, including the number and duration shall be governed in accordance with provisions of the Bylaws. The Corporation shall have perpetual existence unless sooner terminated by not less than three fourths vote of the entire Board of Directors. Internal affairs of the Corporation, including provisions for distribution of assets upon dissolution or termination are as follows: No part of the income or principal shall inure to the benefit of any director or officer, except to pay reasonable compensation for services actually rendered to it and to make reasonable payments and distributions in furtherance of the aforementioned purposes of the Corporation.

To
The Articles of Incorporation of a
Florida Not for Profit Corporation

During such period, or periods, of time as the Corporation is treated as a “private foundation” pursuant to Section 509 of the Code, the directors must distribute the Corporation’s income at such time and in such manner so as not to subject the Corporation to tax under Section 4942 of the Code, the Corporation is prohibited from engaging in any act of self-dealing (as defined in Section 4941(d) of the Code), from retaining any excess business holdings (as defined in Section 4943(c) of the Code) which would subject the Corporation to tax under Section 4943 of the Code, from making any investments or otherwise acquiring any assets which would subject the Corporation to tax under Section 4944 of the Code, from retaining any assets which would subject the Corporation to tax under Section 4944 of the Code if the directors have acquired such assets and from making any taxable expenditures (as defined in Section 4945(d) of the Code).

Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles of Incorporation, the Corporation shall not directly or indirectly carry on any activity which would prevent it from obtaining exemption from federal income taxation as a corporation described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Code, or cause it to lose such exempt status, or carry on any activity no permitted to be carried on by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Code.

Although the period of duration of the Corporation is perpetual, if for any reason the Corporation is to be dissolved or otherwise terminated, no part of the property of the Corporation or any of the proceeds shall be distributed to or inure to the benefit of any of the directors of the Corporation. Upon the dissolution of the Corporation, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of the Section 501(c)(3) of the Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by a Court of Competent Jurisdiction of the district or county in which the principal office of the Corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.
