To Whom It May Concern

On December 29, 2020, a letter received from Florida Department of Education, Commission for Independent Education requiring The Continents State University to modify its name to The Continents States University as mentioned in Standard 1 – Name requirements.

This change must take place before the Commission for Independent Education review and approve the university application to operate as higher education institution in State of Florida.

Therefore, we are releasing the name to be registered and used by the new university with document number: W21000058044.
