dispose of or operate real property and operating businesses necessary and desirable to facilitate and promote the exchange of knowledge and ideas regarding inclusive innovation ecosystems and to offer services and resources to entrepreneurs, artists, and community builders.

(c) Notwithstanding any other provision hereof, the Corporation shall not conduct or carry on any activities not permitted to be conducted or carried on by an organization exempt from federal income taxation under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code or by an organization, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Code. No part of the assets, income, or profits of the Corporation shall be distributable to, or inure to the benefit of, its members, directors, or officers or any private individual, except that the Corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation to its employees for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in the furtherance of the purposes set forth herein.

ARTICLE V

PROHIBITED PURPOSES:

(a) Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the Corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on by an organization exempt from Federal and state income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue law.

(b) The Corporation is not organized nor shall it be operated for the primary purpose of generating pecuniary gain or profit. The Corporation shall not distribute any gains, profits or dividends to the directors, or officers thereof, or to any individual, except as reasonable compensation for services actually performed in carrying out the Corporation's charitable purposes. The property, assets, and net income of the Corporation are irrevocably dedicated to charitable purposes and no part of which shall inure to the benefit of any individual, except as reasonable compensation for services actually performed in carrying out the Corporation's charitable purposes.

(c) No part of the activities of the Corporation shall consist of the carrying on of propaganda or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the Corporation shall not participate in, nor intervene in, any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office.

(d) The corporation shall not engage in any prohibited activity as defined in Section 617.0835, Florida Statutes, or the corresponding provision of any future Florida Statute.

ARTICLE VIII

MANNER OF ELECTION: The method of selection for directors on the Board of Directors and number of directors shall be stated in the Bylaws. The provision for the election of the directors and officers shall be set forth in the Bylaws.

ARTICLE IX

DIRECTORS: The Corporation shall be governed by a Board of Directors as provided for in the Bylaws of the Corporation.

OFFICERS: The Officers of the Corporation shall consist of such officers and assistant officers as the Board of Directors shall provide for in the Bylaws of the Corporation. The Officers shall be elected by the Board of Directors at the annual meeting of the Board of Directors. Vacancies shall be filled by the Board of Directors at any regular or specially called meeting.

ARTICLE X

INFORMAL ACTION: To the extent permitted by law, any action required to be taken at any annual or special meeting of the Board of Directors or any appointed committee of either board, or any action which may be taken at any annual or special meeting of any such board or committee, may be taken without a meeting, without prior notice and without a vote, if the action is taken by the directors or committee members entitled to vote on such action and having not less than the minimum number of votes necessary to authorize such action at a meeting at which all directors or committee members entitled to vote on such action were present and voted. The action must be evidenced by one or more written consents describing the action taken, dated and signed by approving directors or committee members having the requisite number of votes and entitled to vote on such action, and such written consent or consents must be delivered to the Corporation at its principal office.
