Dear Sirs:

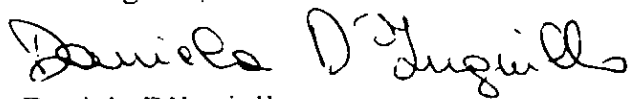

In the attached documents you will find the corrected original of the Article of Incorporation and one copy of it, along with a copy of your letter.

I noticed that my last name has been misspelled, I would appreciate if it could be corrected:

It has been filled as D'LNGIULLO instead of D'INGIULLO
(it should be capital I after the apostrophe, instead of L).

Thank you so much in advance for your kind attention.

Best regards,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Daniela D'Ingiullo". The signature is written in a cursive style with a large, stylized initial "D".

Daniela D'Ingiullo

Articles of Incorporation
Of
The Last Hundred, Inc.
A Nonprofit Corporation

In compliance with Chapter 617, F.S.. (Not for Profit)

ARTICLE III PURPOSE

The purpose for which the corporation is organized is exclusively for charitable, religious, educational, and scientific purposes as specified in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, including for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

TLH's mission is to present high-quality art music written in the last one hundred years, acting as a liaison between modern and contemporary music. A central aspect of TLH is to create a professional ensemble that will feature some of the best musicians from our area as well as to invite guest performers, composers, and ensembles from other cities, states, and countries to perform, give lectures/conferences, and teach masterclasses in our community. TLH aims to create carefully selected and crafted events where audience members can experience music in a welcoming setting. In the spirit of promoting new works, the organization is committed to presenting and commissioning pieces by a wide range of composers working locally, nationally, and internationally. Ultimately, TLH wishes to create a culturally enriching environment where those who love classical music from the 20th century to our days, as well as those who are new to it, can explore this rich yet largely underrepresented repertoire.

TLH's goal is to promote art music written during the last one hundred years through public performances, recordings, national and international tours, commissions, and conferences, as well as interviews and workshops.

ARTICLE IV MANNER OF ELECTION

The affairs and business of TLH shall be conducted by a Board of Directors consisting of not less than three (3) nonrelated members, the exact number to be determined from time to time in accordance with
