the time such cost, expense or liability is incurred. Notwithstanding the above, (i) in the event of a settlement in connection with any of the foregoing, the indemnification provisions provided in this Article XI shall not be automatic and shall apply only when the Board approves such settlement and reimbursement for the costs and expenses of such settlement as being in the best interest of the Association, and (ii) in the event a Director or officer admits that he/she is or is adjudged guilty of willful misconduct, gross negligence or criminal conduct in the performance of his/her duties, the indemnification provisions of this Article XI shall not apply. The foregoing right of indemnification provided in this Article XI shall be in addition to and not exclusive of any and all rights of indemnification to which a Director or officer of the Association may be entitled under statute or common law.

The Association shall have the power and authority to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person (a "Covered Person") who is or was a Director, officer, or member of the Architectural Control Committee of the Association, or is or was serving at the request of the Association as a Director or officer of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise. Such insurance shall cover any liability asserted against such Covered Person and incurred in any such capacity, or arising out of such Covered Person's status as such, whether or not the Association would have the power to indemnify the Covered Person against such liability under the provisions of this Article XI.

The provisions of this Article XI shall not be amended in a manner which would limit or deny indemnification for any Director or officer entitled to indemnification hereunder prior to such amendment.

ARTICLE XII BYLAWS

The Board of Directors shall adopt Bylaws consistent with these Articles of Incorporation. Such Bylaws may be altered, amended or repealed in the manner set forth in the Bylaws. In the event of any conflict between the provisions of these Articles and the provisions of the Bylaws, the provisions of these Articles shall control.

- At such meeting, a vote of the Members shall be taken on the proposed amendment(s). The proposed amendment(s) shall be adopted only upon receiving the affirmative vote of a majority of the total number of Members in the Association.
- An amendment may be adopted by a written statement (in lieu of a meeting) signed by all Members and all members of the Board setting forth their intention that an amendment to the Articles be adopted.
- D. Notwithstanding any provisions of this Article XIII to the contrary, these Articles shall not be amended in any manner which shall prejudice the rights of any Institutional Mortgagee without the prior written consent of such Institutional Mortgagee.
- Ε. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Article XIII to the contrary, no amendment to these Articles shall be adopted which shall abridge, prejudice, amend or alter the rights of Declarant without the prior written consent of Declarant, including, but not limited to, Declarant's right to designate and select members of the First Board or otherwise designate and select Directors as provided in Article VIII above, nor shall any other amendment be adopted or become effective without the prior written consent of Declarant for so long as Declarant holds either a leasehold interest in or title to at least one (1) Lot.
- F. A proposal to amend these Articles must contain the full text of the provision to be amended with new language underlined and deleted language stricken. However, if the proposed change is so extensive that underlining and striking through language would hinder, rather than assist, the understanding of the proposed amendment, the following notation must be inserted immediately preceding the proposed amendment: "Substantial rewording. See governing documents for current text." An amendment is effective when recorded in the public records of the County. A copy of each such amendment, modification, repeal or addition attested to by the Secretary or Assistant Secretary of the Community Association shall be recorded amongst the Public Records of the County.
