Article Four Duration

The nonprofit corporation's duration is perpetual.

Article Five Purposes

The organization is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, educational, and scientific purposes under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code, and more specifically, to improve the holistic health of society locally and abroad.

Article Six Dissolution

When the nonprofit corporation dissolves, the Board of Directors will, after paying or making provision for the payment of all liabilities of the corporation, distribute all corporation assets to another center of Hindu religious practices and education that is duly organized exclusively for charitable, religious, educational, and scientific purposes under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code, and to improve the holistic health of society locally and abroad.

If any assets are not distributed under the preceding paragraph, the court of appropriate jurisdiction for the county in the location of the corporation's principal office will dispose of those assets exclusively for religious purposes or to one or more organizations that are, at that time, qualified as exempt organizations under Internal Revenue Code Section 501(c)(3), as the court determines.

Article Seven Restrictions

No part of the net earnings or assets of the nonprofit corporation will inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, its director, officers or any other private persons. But the nonprofit corporation may pay reasonable compensation for services provided and make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in the Articles of Incorporation.

No part of the activities of the nonprofit corporation may include propagandizing or influencing legislation as defined in Internal Revenue Code Section 4945. The nonprofit corporation may not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distributions of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office.

The nonprofit corporation may not exercise any power or engage directly or indirectly in any activity that would invalidate its status as a corporation exempt from federal income taxation:

as a corporation exempt from federal tax under Internal Revenue Code Section 501(c)(3);

as a corporation contributions to which are deductible under Internal Revenue Code Section 170(c)(2); or as a nonprofit corporation organized under the laws of State of Florida.

The nonprofit corporation must distribute its income for each tax year at a time and in a manner to avoid the tax on undistributed income imposed by Internal Revenue Code Section 4942. Furthermore, the nonprofit corporation must not:

engage in any act of self-dealing as defined in of the Internal Revenue Code Section 4941(d); retain any excess business holdings as defined in of the Internal Revenue Code Section 4943(c); make any investments in a manner that would subject it to tax under of the Internal Revenue Code Section 4944; or make any taxable expenditures as defined in of the Internal Revenue Code Section 4945(d).
