Purpose

Corporate Purpose; Powers

The purposes for which the Corporation is organized are exclusively religious, charitable and educational within the meaning of the Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, or the corresponding provision of any future United States' internal revenue law, and such purposes shall include the following:

1. Providing a place of worship and a place of fellowship for those of faith and providing training to the Disciples of Christ.
2. To conduct a local church by the direction of the Holy Spirit and under the leadership of our Lord Jesus Christ as set forth in the Holy Bible, the irrevocable Word of God. Pursuant thereto, the following activities and guidelines shall be established:

- (a) A recognized Creed, Code of Doctrine, Discipline and Form of Worship shall be established.
 - (b) An ecclesiastical form of government shall be established.
 - (c) A church membership based upon acceptance of a recognized creed and belief and support of the church shall be established.
 - (d) Various religious services pursuant to a recognized, creed form of worship, code of doctrine, discipline of the church, and schools for religious and educational instruction to the young and to the old, shall be established as well as home Bible Studies with Life Groups.
 - (e) Sacramental ceremonies such as baptism in water, dedication of infants, the celebration of the Lord's Supper, funeral services and marriage as the bible teaches us, between a natural born man and natural born woman. In fact, marriage is biblical institution established by God as clearly described in the Scriptures. It was first instituted by God in early chapters of Genesis, and codified in the Levitical Law. The Old Testament prophets compared it to a relationship between God and His people. Examples of it are in the historical narratives, and the wisdom literature discusses the unique unity of this relationship. Jesus explained the original intention and core elements of marriage, and several New Testaments Epistles give explicit instructions on this union. As such, the organization views marriage as a profound spiritual institution established by God. Due to the importance of marriage in the biblical witness, the Organization recognizes that marriage is uniting of one natural born man and one natural born woman in covenant commitment for a lifetime as presented in the Holy Scriptures. Therefore, the Organization, its pastors, board of directors, staff and members will not participate in same sex unions or same sex marriage, nor shall its properties or resources be used for such purposes.
3. Spread the Word of the Gospel through seminars, crusades, radio, television, concerts, music production, books and literature publications, book stores, newspapers, social networks, street evangelization and mass media in the U.S. and in all the Nations of the World for the purpose of fulfilling the Great Commission.
 4. Church planting and development, order ministers, establish schools for the preparation and growth of pastors, church leaders, deacons, evangelists, prophets, music ministers, counselors, elders and any one that would like to gain knowledge in the holy scriptures and other books related to religions.
 5. As a means of accomplishing the above purposes and methods, the corporation shall have the following powers:
 - (a) To accept, acquire, receive, take and hold by bequest, devise, grant, gift, purchase, exchange, lease, transfer, judicial order or decree, or otherwise, for any of its objects and purposes, any property, both real and personal, of whatever kind, nature of description and wherever situated.
 - (b) To sell, exchange, convey, mortgage, lease transfer or otherwise dispose of, any such property, both real and personal, as the objects and purposes of the Corporation may require, subject to such limitations as may be prescribed by law.
 - (c) To borrow money, and, from time-to-time, to make, accept, endorse, execute and issue bonds, debentures, promissory notes, monies borrowed or in payment for property acquired, or for any of the other purposes of the corporation. And to secure the payment of any such obligations by mortgage, pledge, deed, indenture, agreement, or other instrument of trust, or by other lien upon assignment of, or agreement in regard to all or any part of the property, rights, or privilege of the corporation wherever situated, whether now owned or hereafter to be acquired.
 - (d) To invest and reinvest its funds in such stock, common or preferred, bonds, debentures, mortgages, or in such other securities and property real and personal, as it shall deem advisable, subject to the limitations and conditions contained in any bequest, advise, grant, or gift, provided such limitations and conditions are not in conflict with the provisions of 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 and applicable regulations thereunder, as they now exist or as they may be amended.

6. No part of the net earnings of the organization shall inure to the benefits of, or be distributable to its members, trustees, officers, or other private persons, except that the organization shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in the furtherance of the purposes set forth in the purpose clause hereof. No substantial part of the activities of the organization shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the organization shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of this document, the organization shall not carry on any organization exempt from the federal income tax under Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

Section 4.02 notwithstanding any other provision of these articles of incorporation:

7. The Corporation shall not conduct or carry on any activities not permitted to be conducted or carried on by an organization exempt from taxation under Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code and its regulations as they now exist or as they may hereafter be amended, or by an organization, contributions to which are deductible under 170 (c) (2) of the Internal Revenue Code and regulation as they now exist or as they may hereafter be amended.
