ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION OF THE HOLY SPIRIT ORTHODOX CHURCH, INC.

THE UNDERSIGNED, each with the capacity to contract, hereby executes and acknowledges these Articles of Incorporation for the purpose of forming a corporation not for profit under and by virtue of the laws of the State of Florida as contained in the provisions of Florida Statutes, Chapter 617, Part I, as amended (the "Act").

ARTICLE 1. NAME

The name of this corporation shall be THE HOLY SPIRIT ORTHODOX CHURCH, INC.

ARTICLE 2. PURPOSE AND POWERS

The general purpose for which the corporation is initially organized is to care for the believers on the basis of the Teachings, the Canons, and the Traditions of the Orthodox Church, to serve their religious needs, and to further their moral betterment; this is to be done under the spiritual guidance and administrative authority of the Diocese-of-the-South of the Orthodox Church in America; to engage in activities which are necessary, suitable or convenient for the accomplishment of that purpose, or which are incidental thereto or connected therewith which are consistent with Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles, this corporation will not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on by (i) a corporation exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue law, or (ii) a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 or any other corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue law. The purposes for which this corporation is organized are exclusively religious, charitable, scientific, literary and educational within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue law.

ARTICLE 1. QUALIFICATION OF MEMBERS AND MANNER OF ADMISSION

For persons to be eligible as members in the corporation, they shall have been baptized and chrismated in the Orthodox Church; shall be willing to abide by the Teachings, the Canons, and the Traditions of the Orthodox Church; and shall accept the canonical and administrative authority of the Diocese-of-the-South of the Orthodox Church in America.

Admission to membership requires that the eligible persons avow their intent to participate in the Holy

Mysteries of Confession and Communion, at least once a year; to care for the welfare of the corporation; and to fulfill the financial obligations established by the corporation.

ARTICLE 4. TERM

The date of commencement of corporate existence shall be when these Articles have been filed with the Department of State and approved by it and the respective filing fee has been paid; the term for which the corporation is to exist shall be perpetual. In the event of dissolution of the corporation, no part of the corporation's earnings or assets shall inure to the benefit of any of its members; the residual assets of the corporation shall be distributed as provided in the Bylaws, but in no event to any organization which is not exempt as an organization described in each of Sections 501(c)(3) and 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, or corresponding sections of any prior or future law, or to the federal, state or local government for exclusive public purpose.

ARTICLE 5. INITIAL REGISTERED OFFICE AND AGENT

The street address of the initial registered office of this corporation is 334 Passage Way, Osprey, Florida 34229, and the name of the initial registered agent of the corporation at such address is ALEXANDER MATIUK.

ARTICLE 9. BYLAWS

The Uniform Parish Bylaws of the Diocese-of-the-South, including the Statutes Governing Missions, and the Statute of the Orthodox Church in America, shall regulate the activities of this corporation. The Bylaws are uniform throughout the Diocese-of-the-South of the Orthodox Church in America, and may not be altered unilaterally by the Corporation, that is, its Board of Directors, its Officers, and its Members, or any combination thereof. However, proposals for change may be presented by the corporation for consideration by the Diocese in accordance with procedure provided in the Bylaws.

ARTICLE 10. POWERS

The corporation shall have the power to make contracts and incur liabilities; acquire, hold title to, and sell, rent and lease, personal property and real estate; erect buildings on its property; accept gifts, donations, contributions and bequests; invest, lend and borrow money and, as security for the repayment thereof, to mortgage or otherwise pledge the property, both personal and real, of the corporation.

ARTICLE 11. SUBSIDIARY ACTIVITIES

The corporation shall have the right to organize and maintain subsidiary religious, charitable and educational institutions such as chapels, cemeteries, asylums for elderly and/or ailing persons and homeless minors, Sunday schools and the like.

WE, THE UNDERSIGNED, for the purposes of becoming a corporation not for profit under the provisions of the laws of Florida, do make and affix our signatures to acknowledge and file in the office of the Secretary of State these Articles of Incorporation.
